The Clitheroe Prime Minister:

The Clitheroe Prime Minister Steven Suttie, 2013-06-24 Jim Arkwright is having a weird week After learning that a video of him talking politics in the pub had gone viral he then finds himself on the radio wiping the floor with the experts and politicians live on the air The British public sick of the sleazy money grabbing political figureheads are instantly endeared by the straight speaking Lancashire man The following morning s newspapers start a campaign demanding that Big Jim should become Prime Minister And it s only Tuesday And Jim has a big job on at work He really has no time for any of this nonsense Can Big Jim be tempted to join the Government The people of the small rural town of Clitheroe hope so as the place has become over run with media gangs press trucks television channels and happy go lucky tourists The Smog John Creasey, 2013-11-04 In an English Village and an American City life goes on as normal Then a choking yellowish smog begins to creep along the ground It is an eye stinging killing miasma Dr Palfrey and Z5 deploy to head off the threat One mystery follows another and a fantastic yet disturbing light is shined on a problem that is all too real The Servant of the People Den Dover, 2024-09-13 This book describes the 18 years during which Den Dover had the privilege to serve the people of Chorley in Lancashire as their Member of Parliament He entered Parliament in 1979 when Margaret Thatcher became the first female Prime Minister of the United Kingdom and left in 1997 when Tony Blair won a massive victory for New Labour Where the author has omitted to mention certain happenings it has been in an effort to focus the minds of readers on the important matters not to obscure what really happened Indeed Den s main aim has been to allow readers to make up their own minds on the very important principles procedures and proceedings described Underpinning everything else is the overwhelming requirement for elected representatives of the people to act in the best interests of all their constituents They should never seek to benefit financially or otherwise from being granted the greatest honour in life namely to work on behalf of their constituents At all times elected representatives must listen to the needs of the people they represent and deal with their problems to the best of their abilities The Parliamentary Representation of the Six Northern Counties of England William Wardell Bean, 1890 The Lancashire Giant Ross Murdoch Martin, 2000-01-01 The Lancashire Giant tells the story of a nine year old cotton weaver who went on to carve out two extraordinary careers for himself In the first David Shackleton became a truly dominating presence in the Edwardian trade union movement was the third MP to be elected under the banner of the Labor party and played a critical role in the infancy of the party His second career begun at Winston Churchill s prompting in 1910 took him to the summit of the British civil service and to active participation in the deliberations of Lloyd George s War Cabinet Prominent union officials have frequently become government ministers but none has repeated Shackleton s achievement in becoming the permanent secretary of a ministry This distinctive career is presented and analysed in meticulous detail by Ross Martin The result is a thorough and rounded portrait strengthened by some suggestive analysis of Shackleton as a private individual Labor History An accessible detailed analytic and sympathetic
