And because the town of this story is what it is there came to dwell in it a Spirit a strange mysterious power playful vicious deadly a Something to be at once feared and courted to be denied yet confessed in the denial a deadly enemy a welcome friend an all powerful Ally
This story began in the Ozark Mountains It follows the trail that is nobody knows how old But mostly this story happened in Corinth a town of the middle class in a Middle Western state There is nothing peculiar about Corinth The story might have happened just as well in any other place for the only distinguishing feature about this town is its utter lack of any distinguishing feature whatever In all the essential elements of its life so far as this story goes Corinth is exactly like every other village town or city in the land This indeed is why the story happened in this particular place
Years ago when the railroad first climbed the backbone of the Ozarks it found Corinth already located on the summit Even before the war this county seat town was a place of no little importance and many a good tale might be told of those exciting days when the woods were full of guerrillas and bushwhackers and the village was raided first by one side then by the other Many a good tale is told indeed for the fathers and mothers of Corinth love to talk of the war times and to point out in Old Town the bullet marked buildings and the scenes of many thrilling events The Calling of Dan Matthews - Scholar's Choice Edition
