The Caring Congregation Karen Lampe, 2014-08-19 Equip your congregation for caring ministries

The Caring Congregation Ministry Karen Lampe, Melissa Gepford, 2021-02-16 The Care Minister's Manual is the personal training workbook and reference guide for Congregational Care Ministers CCM's who serve a central role in the Caring Congregation Ministry CCM's receive in depth training where they learn the theological foundations of congregational care plus the behaviors habits and practices they will need to follow in order to serve others well Each CCM in training should have a copy of this Manual It serves as their training workbook which then becomes the CCM's personal reference guide The Caring Congregation Ministry is a model for congregational care that's been proven to work in small and large churches across the U S It is a laity centered ministry where laypersons receive training and then are commissioned to serve as Congregational Care Ministers or CCM's caring for the people in their congregation and community The Caring Congregation Ministry Implementation Guide is the main book for pastors and other leaders seeking to build launch and sustain a Caring Congregation Ministry in their church

The Caring Congregation Ministry Implementation Guide Karen Lampe, Melissa Collier Gepford, 2021-05-04 Pastors and church leaders genuinely want to care for people in their congregations and communities But pastors cannot care for an entire church and most laypersons don't have the training to do it The Caring Congregation Ministry is a model for person to person care that's been proven to work in small and large churches across the U S It is a laity centered ministry where laypersons receive rigorous training and then are commissioned to serve as Congregational Care Ministers caring for others in their own congregation and their extended community This remarkable approach to congregational care was first developed by author Karen Lampe and her team at The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City It has been tested refined and strengthened and is now being adapted in all sorts of congregational settings One early adapter was co author Melissa Gepford who launched a Caring Congregation Ministry in her own rural church Together they have created this immensely practical guide for any pastor or leader seeking to create a congregational care ministry This Implementation Guide is the main book for getting started It introduces the ministry model and explains the Five Essentials which form the ministry's foundation It is extremely practical full of checklists and other tools to help pastors and other leaders understand and explain this way of providing congregational care The Implementation Guide also includes a section focused on the crucial component of this ministry the Congregational Care Minister or CCM This section fully describes the characteristics of CCM's how to recruit people to this ministry how to discern if candidates are a good fit and how to conduct the CCM training over a multi week period It details the critical information CCM's must know and the behaviors and habits they must practice in order to be effective Note that the companion book The Caring Congregation Ministry Care Minister's Manual is required for the CCM training It serves as a training workbook which then becomes the CCM's personal reference manual

The Caring Congregation Handbook and Training Manual Barbara

Frances Meyers, Peggy Jane Rahman, 2005-11 This book is a curriculum and resource manual for The Caring Congregation Program a program that helps congregations become more intentionally inclusive and supportive towards people with mental disorders and their families The goal of the workshops is to reduce prejudice by increasing understanding and acceptance among people who have mental disorders giving ideas for specific supportive actions that can be undertaken It intentionally honors the spiritual component in caring for mental disorders thus building a community that will become a source of caring for those with mental disorders There are lessons for adults children and people doing pastoral care The Concise Guide for Congregational Care Melissa Collier Gepford, 2022-04-05 THE RIGHT WORDS FOR EVERY SITUATION AT YOUR FINGERTIPS Pastors and congregational care ministers of all kinds must offer the right words and presence in any place at a moment's notice Words of scripture offering comfort encouragement and wisdom Words of truth providing accurate information Words of prayer offering connection with God And a calm capable attentive presence The Concise Guide for Congregational Care is the tool for the task This easy to use book provides words of scripture and prayer along with important information to share with people in hospitals care centers and homes The full texts of scripture poetry and prayers are included so there's no more flipping back and forth in your Bible or other books The small size makes the book easy to carry in your bag or pocket and appropriate to use in the most intimate settings and sacred moments Part 1 offers quick reminders of the foundations for care including key points on theology boundaries procedures and the use of technology Part 2 provides scriptures prayers and other relevant words for times of crisis and events or situations during which people need care It is organized by situation including addiction anxiety cancer COVID 19 death depression divorce infertility sexual assault and suicide Part 3 equips you to be a meaningful spiritual guide in important moments beyond crisis care These include adoption blessing of a home graduation retirement and many other transitions milestones and seasons of life This section includes words of scripture and prayer for each situation plus instructions for conducting a simple service of anointment Melissa Gepford is an ordained deacon in The United Methodist Church and serves as the Intergenerational Discipleship Coordinator for the Great Plains Conference UMC She launched Caring Congregation Ministries at churches in Kansas and Nebraska and is an organizational consultant for The Caring Congregation which strives to create excellence in church care ministry across the United States Contributors Laura Berg and Joy Dister Dominguez provided original prayer texts and helped to shape the scripture selections for this book Laura Berg is an ordained deacon in full connection in the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church She has served as a minister of congregational care hospice chaplain and chaplain for the fire police departments of New Smyrna Beach FL She co-established a congregational care ministry in her church and has worked with leaders and laity in churches across the U S to develop care ministries for their communities Joy Dister Dominguez serves as associate pastor at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church in Ft Worth TX where she oversees congregational care and discipleship and preaches regularly Joy is an elder in full connection in the

United Methodist Church She is an ICF trained coach and uses those skills to guide leaders and congregations in creating strong sustainable ministries of care

The Caring Congregation Karen Lampe, 2011-09-01 Caring for the congregation is more than any one person can do even the pastor All persons eventually experience grief and loss crisis and suffering and many come to church for the first time as a result of needing help Using this four session study modeled after The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood Kansas churches can form an effective team by addressing four key areas of congregational care prayer ministry support ministry hospital visitation and grief and death ministry Karen Lampe says congregational care should be modeled after the ministry of Jesus who offered compassion understanding healing and wholeness as a way of offering God's redemptive gift of grace Congregational care is one reason according to pastors Adam Hamilton and Karen Lampe that their church is successful in attracting and keeping new members In each richly illustrated session readers will find inspiration Bible connection skill building practical tips and resources including information about anointing helpful scriptures application forms suggested requirements and application for team member a volunteer leader covenant safety and self care contract and a counseling guide

The Caring Church Howard W. Stone, Howard Stone has given a very useful gift to parish ministers and their congregations in this very concise clearly written practical lucidly illustrated book His contribution grows out of the accumulation of practical experience as well as scholarship David K Switzer Journal of Pastoral Care

The Hospital Handbook Lawrence D. Reimer, James T. Wagner, 1988 Hospital visitation is a vital part of any church's ministry Written for the divinity student the beginning or experienced pastor and the lay person this helpful handbook offers comprehensive guidance on many important aspects of pastoral care of the hospitalized

Speaking Hope Jack Holland, 2019-03-26 Western culture and many of its churches and pastors are enamored by the assumption that life's most difficult problems call for in depth psychological treatment This book offers a different model of care than the dominant perspectives of modern psychology to those who have the responsibility of pastoral counseling While there are a number of models and training programs for Christian lay counselors this work is original in its application of the Solution Focused approach to training lay members The fundamental value of this book is as a guide for ministers in equipping the members of their congregations to care for one another It is in caring for and being cared for by others that we truly discover the joy of living in God's community

Lay Counseling, Revised and Updated Siang-Yang Tan, Eric T. Scalise, 2016-10-11 This one of a kind resource provides pastors church leaders and non professional counselors with everything they need to establish a program for lay counseling This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated in light of fresh research and outlines a practical training resource that can be used to train and equip lay counselors Filled with useful forms and questionnaires it also provides a helpful and comprehensive survey of the programs and resources that are currently available
