Housing and Social Change Ray Forrest, James Lee, 2003-09-25 This wide ranging exploration of the key contemporary relationships between social change and housing is both policy oriented and theoretical drawing on a group of internationally respected academics It is also multidisciplinary incorporating sociology economics social policy and human geography perspective Its international perspective is rooted in its examination of issues such as economic insecurity and instability social diversity financial and social exclusion sustainability privatisation and state legitimacy the interaction of the global and the local across three continents

Cohabitation and Marriage in the Americas: Geo-historical Legacies and New Trends Albert Esteve, Ron J. Lesthaeghe, 2016-11-03 This open access book presents an innovative study of the rise of unmarried cohabitation in the Americas from Canada to Argentina Using an extensive sample of individual census data for nearly all countries on the continent it offers a cross national comparative view of this recent demographic trend and its impact on the family The book offers a tour of the historical legacies and regional heterogeneity in unmarried cohabitation covering Canada the United States Mexico Central America Colombia the Andean region Brazil and the Southern Cone It also explores the diverse meanings of cohabitation from a cross national perspective and examines the theoretical implications of recent developments on family change in the Americas The book uses data from the Integrated Public Use Microdata Series International IPUMS a project dedicated to collecting and distributing census data from around the world This large sample size enables an empirical testing of one of the currently most powerful explanatory frameworks for changes in family formation around the world the theory of the Second Demographic Transition With its unique geographical scope this book will provide researchers with a new understanding into the spectacular rise in premarital cohabitation in the Americas which has become one of the most salient trends in partnership formation in the region

Families in Asia Stella Quah, 2008-09-15 This fully updated second edition provides a unique and comparative analysis of family trends in Asia by focusing on the most relevant and significant aspects of family from the process of dating to the impact of economic development on homes and family life as they are experienced across Asia Between Sex and Power Göran Therborn, 2004-07-31 The institution of the family changed hugely during the course of the twentieth century In this major new work Göran Therborn provides a global history and sociology of the family as an institution and of politics within the family focusing on three dimensions of family relations on the rights and powers of fathers and husbands on marriage cohabitation and extra marital sexuality and on population policy Therborn's empirical analysis uses a multi disciplinary approach to show how the major family systems of the world have been formed and developed Therborn concludes by assessing what changes the family might see during the next century This book will be essential reading for anybody with an interest in either the sociology or the history of the family Routledge Handbook of Families in Asia Stella R. Quah, 2015-03-24 Research on the family has expanded considerably across Asia but studies tend to be fragmented focusing on narrow issues within limited areas cities towns small communities and may not be accessible to international readers These limitations make it difficult for researchers students policy makers and practitioners to obtain the information they need The Routledge Handbook of Families in Asia fills that gap by providing a current and comprehensive analysis of Asian families by a wide range of experts in a single publication The thirty two chapters of this comparative and multi disciplinary volume are organized into nine major themes conceptual approaches methodological issues family life in the context of culture family relationships across the family life cycle issues of work and income stress and conflict family diversity family policy and laws and environmental setting of homes Each chapter examines family life across Asian countries studying cultural similarities and differences and exploring how families are changing and what trends are likely to develop in the future To provide a fruitful learning experience for the reader each chapter offers examples relevant data and a comprehensive list of references Offering a complete interdisciplinary overview of families in Asia the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policy makers and practitioners across the disciplines of Asian Studies Sociology Demography Social Work Law Social Policy Anthropology Geography Public Health and Architecture Reconfiguring Families in Contemporary Vietnam Danièle Bélanger, Magali Barbieri, 2009-03-18 Reconfiguring Families in Contemporary Vietnam chronicles and analyzes the most significant change for families in Vietnam's recent past the transition to a market economy referred to as Doi Moi in Vietnamese and generally translated as the renovation Two decades have passed since the wide ranging institutional transformations that took place reconfigured the ways families produce and reproduce The downsizing of the socialist welfare system and the return of the household as the unit of production and consumption redefined the boundaries between the public and private This volume is the first to offer a multidisciplinary perspective that sets its gaze exclusively on processes at work in the everyday lives of families and on the implications for gender and intergenerational relations By focusing on families this book shifts the spotlight from macro transformations of the renovation era orchestrated by those in power to micro level transformations experienced daily in households between husbands and wives parents and children grandparents and other family members Marriage in Contemporary Japan Yoko Tokuhiro, 2009-09-25 This is the first book in recent years to explore the contemporary state of marriage in Japanese society Setting out the different perceptions and expectations of marriage in today's Japan the book discusses how economic issues and the family impact on marital behaviour

Family, Ties and Care Hans Bertram, Nancy Ehlert, 2011-11-29 Families international the new milestone How may care be secured particularly in ageing societies how may families relatives and friends support each other and live together beyond market reasons How can social welfare be secured How do different countries and different cultures solve the problems they may or may not now or in days to come share with other countries and cultures Families as is found in this publication by internationally renowned experts are the base and well of society's fortune in a humane paradigm Furthermore it is the very backbone of lifelong solidarity in inter generational relations and the very place where the readiness of taking on care and responsibility are experienced and learned The publication's underlying idea opens up two perspectives on the one hand differences and similarities in family life forms are chiselled out on the base of an international cooperation Simultaneously the international authors are called upon to express their ideas about their own country's future more distinctly and clearly thus distinctions and similarities of the respective paths of development are rather easily perceived
