The Christmas Coat Memories Of My Sioux Childhood:

The Christmas Coat Virginia Driving Hawk Sneve, 2011 Virginia and her brother are never allowed to pick first from the donation boxes at church because their father is the priest Virginia is heartbroken when another girl gets the beautiful coat that she covets Based on the author's memories of life on the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota The Oxford

Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James Howard Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014 Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field The Handbook's forty three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty first century Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M tis literary practices Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U S and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat n Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field Inclusive Texts in Elementary Classrooms Amy J. Heineke, Aimee Papola-Ellis, 2022 Put children's diverse experiences at the center of the curriculum with texts that promote their identity development literacy engagement and comprehension and learning across the content areas This practical text includes guidance for setting learning goals that align with relevant standards and curricular directives as well as classroom examples teaching strategies and reflective questions Teaching Indigenous Students Jon Reyhner, 2015-04-29 Teaching Indigenous Students puts culturally based education squarely into practice The volume edited and with an introduction by leading American Indian education scholar Jon Reyhner brings together new and dynamic research from established and emerging voices in the field of American Indian and Indigenous education We Are the Stars Sarah Hernandez, 2023-02-21 After centuries of colonization this important new work recovers the literary record of Oceti Sakowin historically known to some as the Sioux

Nation women who served as their tribes traditional culture keepers and culture bearers In so doing it furthers discussions about settler colonialism literature nationalism and gender Women and land form the core themes of the book which brings tribal and settler colonial narratives into comparative analysis Divided into two parts the first section of the work explores how settler colonizers used the printing press and boarding schools to displace Oceti Sakowin women as traditional culture keepers and culture bearers with the goal of internally and externally colonizing the Dakota Nakota and Lakota nations The second section focuses on decolonization and explores how contemporary Oceti Sakowin writers and scholars have started to reclaim Dakota Nakota and Lakota literatures to decolonize and heal their families communities and nations

Empowering Families Judy Bradbury, Susan E. Busch, 2015-04-24 The home school connection is important to student literacy achievement However it can be time consuming to develop and implement programming that keeps families engaged and involved Empowering Families makes it easier to accomplish these goals Chock full of step by step plans for arranging a variety of parent caregiver meetings and literacy booster events the book enables educators to get families involved in their children s learning in ways that are fun and non intimidating By hosting these events at your school you ll be empowering families to read aloud to their children at home minimize the summer slide encourage male involvement in literacy help their children avoid homework hassles and much much more Bonus The book includes ready to use handouts for your events such as announcement sheets follow up evaluations and tipsheets that describe ways parents can reinforce literacy at home These handouts are photocopiable and the tipsheets are also available for easy download from our website at www.routledge.com 9781138803114 Spanish versions of the tipsheets are available on our website as well
