The City And The Stars

Arthur C. Clarke

The City And The Stars:

The City And The Stars Arthur C. Clarke, 2011-06-02 Clarke's masterful evocation of the far future of humanity considered his finest novel. Men had built cities before but never such a city as Diaspar. For millennia its protective dome shut out the creeping decay and danger of the world outside. Once it held powers that rule the stars. But then as legend has it the invaders came driving humanity into this last refuge. It takes one man a Unique to break through Diaspar's stifling inertia to smash the legend and discover the true nature of the Invaders. City and Stars Arthur Charles Clarke, 1981-01 Features a new Introduction by Arthur C. Clarke

The City and the Stars Arthur C. Clarke, 2012-11-30 This grand space adventure explores the fate of humanity a billion years in the future. A visionary classic by one of science fiction's greatest minds. Far in the future Earth's oceans have evaporated and humanity has all but vanished. The inhabitants of Diaspar believe their domed city is all that remains of an empire that had once conquered the stars. Inside the dome the citizens live in technological splendor free from the distractions of aging and disease. Everything is controlled precisely just as the city's designers had intended. But a boy named Alvin unlike his fellow humans shows an insatiable and dangerous curiosity about the world outside the dome. His questions will send him on a quest to discover the truth about the city and humanity's history as well as its future. A masterful and awe-inspiring work of imagination. The City and the Stars is considered one of Arthur C. Clarke's finest novels.

The City and the Sea Wes Goff, 2008-02 From Arab drylands to tropical islands from Somalia to Australia Tijuana to Okinawa Chicago to San Diego and Great Lakes to Kuwait The City and the Sea is the often humorous memoir of a young sailor who finally sees the things that exist outside of his small hometown in Missouri. He witnesses these new places during a time when it seemed like the world was changing. And at the same time it occurs at an age when he notices changes in himself. Wes Goff grew up in Fulton, Missouri. He has written humor columns for publications in Wyoming and South Korea. His first book was The Backroad Legends of Callaway County. His novella Me and Billy the Kid 91 is available as an e-book at www.backroadlegends.com. He can be contacted at callawaycryptids2002@yahoo.com.

The City and The River Arun Joshi, 2018-11-12 The City and The River is a political fable. Using an artistically satisfying combination of fantasy, prophecy and a startlingly real vision of everyday politics, this novel is truly a parable of the times. The City is all cities. The River is the mother of cities. The Grand Master rules the city by the river and is determined to become its unchallenged King. Things move smoothly in this earthly Eden till a strange prophecy is made by the palace astrologer. The learned man predicts the crowning of a new King in place of the Grand Master. With quiet humour and characteristic skill Joshi plots the path of intrigue and corruption in high places. The Grandmaster is surrounded by a coterie of fawning councillors whose sole aim is to remain in limelight and improve their hierarchical standing. The politics in the novel has unmistakable echoes of the Emergency period of 1974-75: acquisition of unlimited powers, presence of self-seeking sycophants, shadow of an heir apparent and loss of individual freedom pose significant questions about identity, commitment and faith in a hostile society. The story is narrated in easy flowing prose blending political satire with philosophical and spiritual dimensions The Earth, the City, and the Hidden Narrative of Race Carl C. Anthony, 2017-10-16 This book by Carl C Anthony offers a new story about race and place intended to bridge long standing racial divides The long ignored history of African American contributions to American infrastructure and the modern economic system is placed in the larger context of the birth of the universe and the evolution of humanity in Africa The author interweaves personal experiences as an architect planner environmentalist and black American with urban history racial justice cosmology and the challenge of healing the environmental and social damage that threatens the future of humankind Thoughtful writing about race urban planning and environmental and social equity is sparked by stories of life as an African American child in post World War II Philadelphia a student and civil rights activist in 1960s Harlem a traveling student of West African architecture and culture and a pioneering environmental justice advocate in Berkeley and New York This book will appeal to everyone troubled by racism and searching for solutions including individuals exploring their identity and activists eager to democratize power and advance equitable policies in historically marginalized communities This is a rich insightful encounter with an American urbanist with a uniquely expansive perspective on human origins who sets forth what he calls an inclusive vision for a shared planetary future The City and the Stars Arthur C. Clarke, 2001 Men had built cities before but never such a city as Diaspar for millennia its protective dome shutout the creeping decay and danger of the world outside Once it held powers that rules the stars But then as legend had it The invaders came driving humanity into this last refuge It takes one man A Unique to break through Diaspar s stifling inertia to smash the legend and discover the true nature of the Invaders Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore , 1883 The City in the Islamic World, Volume 94/1 & 94/2 Salma K. Jayyusi, Renata Holod, Attilio Petruccioli, Andre Raymond, 2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020 The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion The House, The City, and The Judge Richard Kuhns, 1962
