Measuring International Authority Liesbet Hooghe, 2017 This is the third of five ambitious volumes theorizing the structure of governance above and below the central state This book is written for those interested in the character causes and consequences of governance within the state This book sets out a measure of authority for seventy six international organizations IOs from 1950 or the time of their establishment to 2010 which can allow researchers to test expectations about the character sources and consequences of international governance The international organizations considered are regional e.g. the EU Andean Community NAFTA cross regional e.g. Commonwealth of Nations the Organization of Islamic Cooperation and global e.g. the UN World Bank WTO Firstly the book introduces carefully constructed estimates for the scope and depth of authority exercised by international governments The estimates are unique in their comparative scope their specificity and time span Secondly it describes describe broad trends in IO authority by comparing delegation and pooling over time across IOs and across decision areas Thirdly it presents the evidence gathered by the authors to estimate international authority by carefully discussing forty seven international organizations and showing how their bodies are composed what decisions each body makes and how they make decisions Transformations in Governance is a major new academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states up to supranational institutions down to subnational governments and side ways to public private networks It brings together work that significantly advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series targets mainly single authored or co authored work but it is pluralistic in terms of disciplinary specialization research design method and geographical scope Case studies as well as comparative studies historical as well as contemporary studies and studies with a national regional or international focus are all central to its aims Authors use qualitative quantitative formal modeling or mixed methods A trade mark of the books is that they combine scholarly rigour with readable prose and an attractive production style The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford

The Jurisprudence of the Caribbean Court of Justice and Regional Integration Indira Rampersad, Anthony Gafoor, 2024-12-06 The book is a joint publication with equal contributions by Dr Indira Rampersad and Justice Dr Anthony Gafoor It presents the first comprehensive analysis of the jurisprudence of the Caribbean Court of Justice in both its original and appellate jurisdictions from 2005 to 2020 It seeks to address the central issue of whether the jurisprudence of the CCJ has the capacity to foster regional integration Through a series of semi structured interviews primary and secondary sources the book harnesses the dynamic interplay between the disciplines of International Relations and Law It claims that by attempting to uphold the rule of law and promote both economic and non economic forms of the second generation regional integration the CCJ aims to inculcate a sense of obligation among member states to uphold both economic agreements and non economic community rights and values

Cooperation, Comity, and Competition Policy Professor Andrew T. Guzman, 2010-12-03 Cooperation Comity and Competition Policy edited by Andrew T Guzman illustrates how domestic competition law policies intersect with the realities of international business It offers a discussion of what might be done to improve the way in which cross border business is handled by competition policy The first part of the book provides country reports written by local experts explaining the extraterritorial reach of national laws Each country report summarizes existing domestic law and examines the conditions under which each country applies its substantive competition laws to conduct that takes place abroad These chapters also address the question of comity meaning the circumstances in which a country would decline to exercise jurisdiction on the grounds that another state is the more appropriate jurisdiction Finally the extent of cooperation between the local government and other states is examined In conducting cross border business activity these reports provide the reader with a sense of the multiple jurisdictions that a business must consider within the scope of how laws from various states interact and overlap The countries covered include Australia Brazil Canada China the EC Israel Japan Singapore and the United States The second part of the book offers several proposals for effectively managing these overlapping competition policy regimes Written by top academics and practitioners the proposals render some of the most important current thinking on the topic The country reports and the expert policy proposals together provide a unique perspective on international competition policy and the challenges of the international competition policy regime

Commonwealth Caribbean Law and Procedure Alina Kaczorowska-Ireland, Westmin James, 2019-07-26

Commonwealth Caribbean Law and Procedure The Referral Procedure under Article 214 RTC in the Light of EU and International Law is about the referral procedure set out in Article 214 of the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas RTC which Treaty established the Caribbean Community Single Market and Economy CSME Article 214 RTC bears clear parallels to Article 267 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union TFEU the most important being that that both articles pursue the same objective i e they seek to ensure that CSME law and EU law respectively are uniformly applied in all Member States Although Article 214 RTC was inspired by and modelled on Article 267 TFEU it is not its exact replica The similarities and differences between Article 214 RTC and Article 267 TFEU are critically assessed in this book Also the book Examines how Article 214 RTC operates in the Caribbean context how it interacts with other provisions of the RTC and how it fits into the various national legal systems of the Member States of the CSME Explores possible reasons why so far national courts of the Member States of the CSME have not made any referrals to the Caribbean Court of Justice CCJ Puts Article 214 RTC in a comparative perspective in particular the book compares and contrasts it with Article 267 TFEU Examines some of the aspects of Article 214 RTC in the light of public international law bearing in mind that under Article 217 1 RTC the CCJ is required when exercising its original jurisdiction under Article 211 RTC to apply such rules of international law as may be applicable This is to ensure that the CCJ will not bring in a finding of non liquet on the ground of silence or obscurity of CSME law which Article 217 2 RTC expressly prohibits This book will be of interest to academics and students studying CSME law EU law and comparative law as well as judges lawyers and governmental and non governmental organizations from the Caribbean region
