The Catholic Sanctuary And The Second Vatican Council:

The Catholic Sanctuary Michael Davies, 1997-02 In this very important little pocket booklet Michael Davies sets forth the amazing thesis that Vatican II and the Post Vatican II legislation did not mandate any changes in the Catholic sanctuary that is they did not mandate moving the Tabernacle from the central point in the altar nor placing a chair in the middle of the sanctuary or even Mass facing the people Filled with quotes from the relevant passages of the actual Church documents this valuable little handbook is a wonderful aid for those trying to education discuss and fight a modernist update of the sanctuary in a parish Church Michael Davies also shows the striking similarity between the Protestant Reformers destruction of altars in the 16th century and today s destruction of altars and sanctuaries by modernist reformers This booklet is a best seller and an eye opener to un sanctioned changes in the structure of the sanctuary Theology in Stone Richard Kieckhefer, 2008-07-24 Thinking about church architecture has come to an impasse Reformers and traditionalists are talking past each other Statements from both sides are often strident and dogmatic In Theology in Stone Richard Kieckhefer seeks to help both sides move beyond the standoff toward a fruitful conversation about houses of worship Drawing on a wide range of historical examples with an eye to their contemporary relevance he offers new ideas about the meanings and uses of church architecture No Place for God Moyra Doorly, 2007 In No Place for God Doorly traces the principles of modern architecture to the ideas of space that spread rapidly during the twentieth century She sees a parallel between the desacralization of the heavens and consequently of our churches and the mass inward search for a God of one s own This double movement away from the transcendent God who reveals himself to man through Scripture and tradition and toward an inner truth relevant only to oneself has emptied our churches and the worship that takes place within them of the majesty and beauty that once inspired reverence in both believers and unbelievers alike Spiritual Sanctuary Caitlin Mary Wilson, UNITEC Institute of Technology (1994-2002), 2012 Christian Theological Tradition Catherine Cory, Michael Hollerich, 2015-08-13 This text helps students acquire a basic theological literacy in key persons and events of the Bible and the Christian faith and in Christianity s encounter with culture at large Historically arranged it also addresses five major themes of systematic theology revelation God creation Jesus and church People Get Ready Susan Bigelow Reynolds, 2023-01-17 WINNER COLLEGE THEOLOGY SOCIETY 2024 BEST BOOK AWARD What does it mean to be a community of difference St Mary of the Angels is a tiny underground Catholic parish in the heart of Boston s Egleston Square More than a century of local national and international migrations has shaped and reshaped the neighborhood transforming streets into borderlines and the parish into a waystation Today the church sustains a community of Black Caribbean Latin American and Euro American parishioners from Roxbury and beyond In People Get Ready Susan Reynolds draws on six years of ethnographic research to examine embodied ritual as a site of radical solidarity in the local church Weaving together archived letters oral histories stories photographs newspaper articles and newly examined archdiocesan documents Reynolds traces how the people of St Mary's constructed rituals of solidarity as a practical foundation for building bridges across difference. She looks beyond liturgy to unexpected places from Mass announcements to parish council meetings from the Good Friday Via Crucis through neighborhood streets to protests staged in and around the church in the wake of Boston's 2004 parish shutdowns. Through ethnography and Catholic ecclesiology Reynolds argues for a retrieval of Vatican II's notion of ecclesial solidarity as a basis for the mission of the local church in an age of migration, displacement and change. It is through the work of ritual the story of St Mary's reveals that we learn to negotiate the borders in our midst to cultivate friendships exercise power build peace and in a real way to survive.

Midnight in Issaquah Frances Pope, 2023-01-29 Providence Heights Campus in Issaquah, Washington was designed in the 1950s as a state-of-the-art modern gothic architecture and completed by the Sisters of Providence in 1961. The purpose of the campus was to give equal opportunity to women religious on an equal basis to the men of the Catholic Church. Providence Heights was only one of two for that purpose in the United States. Times were changing in the Catholic Church during the 1960s and by 1969 the original purpose of Providence Heights as an educational opportunity for women became untenable. The campus was sold to Lutheran Bible Institute and eventually to The City Church. In 2016 the property was listed as endangered by the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation. Local and regional groups fought hard to preserve the campus. Preserve Providence Heights was the last. This is their story.

Senses of the Soul William Dyrness, 2008-05-01 Senses of the Soul explores the way art and visual elements are incorporated into Christian worship. It incorporates research conducted in Los Angeles congregations. Through extensive interviews in a sample of Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox congregations it looks into the way visual elements actually become part of the experience of worship. By looking at attitudes and experiences of beauty, art and memories it suggests that believers appropriate images and aesthetic encounters in terms of imaginative structures that have been formed through worship practices over time. By comparing responses across denominations the book proposes that people receive visual elements in ways that have been shaped by long traditions and specific background beliefs. In addition to discussions of the differences between the major Christian traditions the book also examines the relation of art and beauty to worship, the role of memories and everyday life and the power of images in spirituality and worship. By its focus on the worshiper the book seeks to make a contribution to the growing conversation between the arts and Christian worship and to the process of worship renewal.
