The Church in Exile Lee Beach,2015-01-05 The church in North America today lives in a post Christian society Lee Beach helps the people of God today to develop a hopeful and prophetic imagination a theology responsive to its context and an exilic identity marked by faithfulness to God s mission in the world

The God Who Saves David W. Congdon,2016-09-08 Christian universalism has been explored in its biblical philosophical and historical dimensions For the first time The God Who Saves explores it in systematic theological perspective In doing so it also offers a fresh take on universal salvation one that is postmetaphysical existential and hermeneutically critical The result is a constructive account of soteriology that does justice to both the universal scope of divine grace and the historicity of human existence In The God Who Saves David W Congdon orients theology systematically around the New Testament witness to the apocalyptic inbreaking of God s reign The result is a consistently soteriocentric theology Building on the insights of Rudolf Bultmann Ernst Kasemann Eberhard Jungel and J Louis Martyn he interprets the saving act of God as the eschatological event that crucifies the old cosmos in Christ Human beings participate in salvation through their unconscious existential cocrucifixion in which each person is interrupted by God and placed outside of himself or herself Both academically rigorous and pastorally sensitive The God Who Saves opens up new possibilities for understanding not only what salvation is but also who the God who brings about our salvation is Here is an interdisciplinary exercise in dogmatic theology for the twenty first century

Advancing the Vision Bernie Van De Walle,Benjamin Elliott,Jenny-Lyn de Klerk,2023-02-16 After more than 130 years the Fourfold Gospel Jesus Christ our Savior Sanctifier Healer and Coming King continues to find a ready following and creative expression around the world Its success however means that it has come to be understood expressed and practiced in ways somewhat differently than it originally was This volume written by scholars from across the globe explores these emphases in detail articulating how the passage of well over a century and the crossing of oceans has resulted in the advancing of the original vision

Post-Christendom Studies: Volume 8 Lee Beach,Gordon L. Heath,Steven M. Studebaker,2024-07-16 Post Christendom Studies publishes research on the nature of Christian identity and mission in the contexts of post Christendom Post Christendom refers to places both now and in the past where Christianity was once a significant cultural presence though not necessarily the dominant religion Sometimes Christendom refers to the official link between church and state The term post Christendom is often associated with the rise of secularization religious pluralism and multiculturalism in western countries over the past sixty years Our use of the term is broader than that however Egypt for example can be considered a post Christendom context It was once a leading center of Christianity Christendom moreover does not necessarily mean official public and dominant religion For example under Saddam Hussein Christianity was probably a minority religion but for the most part Christians were left alone After America deposed Saddam Christians began to flee because they became a persecuted minority In that sense post Saddam Iraq is an experience of post Christendom it is a shift from a cultural context in which Christians have more or less freedom to exercise their faith to one where they are persecuted and or marginalized for doing so The Lived Experience of Palliative Chaplains Caroline Yih,2024-06-21 This book explores the unique challenges of disenfranchisement faced by Christian chaplains working within the secular and pluralistic context of contemporary healthcare The case study focuses on practitioners in Hong Kong and showcases the utilisation of interpretative phenomenological analysis IPA as a fruitful basis for practical theological endeavours The role and perspective of the palliative chaplain as spiritual care specialist is examined along with the tension that exists with the cultural and organisational context in which they operate The chapters examine how end of life care practitioners can often face marginalisation oppression vulnerability and disorientation among other difficult experiences that the author unites under a general theme of homelessness The book contributes to discussions regarding fuller integration of the spiritual dimension within a holistic vision of end of life care provision It will be of particular interest to scholars of practical theology and chaplaincy as well as palliative medicine Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 4.1 Daniel S. Diffey,Ryan A. Brandt,Justin McLendon,2019-06-06 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics Metamorphosis Sarah Travis,2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church's self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom

Flourishing in Babylon Joe Aldred, 2024-04-30 Black theology has long been about oppression and liberation But is there a different story to tell Can the black story be one about a quest for flourishing through agency and self determination and not only an existence of nihilistic struggle Drawing on a fresh reading of Jeremiah's letter to Jewish exiles and his own Pentecostal tradition Joe Aldred offers a fresh understanding of the Black British experience which draws on a realised eschatology rooted in identity empowerment and an agenda In a contested diasporan context in the shadow of empire there exists opportunity to fully flourish without apology or as Jeremiah puts it to those in exile to settle build and grow

Rebels and Exiles Matthew S. Harmon, 2020-10-27 We all share an experience of exile of longing for our true home In this ESBT volume Matthew S Harmon explores how the theme of sin and exile is developed throughout Scripture tracing a common pattern of human rebellion God's judgment and the hope of restored relationship beginning with the first humans and concluding with the end of exile in a new creation
