Along for the Ride Henry Zeybel, 2021-09-10 A USAF navigator's candid, sharp-witted memoir of his Vietnam tours and his wide-ranging career. A first-rate read. Nick Brokhausen, author of We Few. During Hank Zeybel's first tour in Vietnam, he flew 772 C-130 sorties as a navigator. He volunteered for a second tour, requesting assignment to B-26s so he could shoot back. When B-26s were removed from the inventory, he accepted a Spectre gunship crew slot, flying truck-busting missions over the Ho Chi Minh Trail. In this book, he describes the terror of flying through heavy AA fire over the trail and the heroics of the pilots in bringing their crews through. Away from the war, he recalls leaving back in the US where his elderly father was bewildered by his war-hardened attitude and black sense of humor. Contextualizing his time with Spectre gunships, he compares his experiences with those of other airmen like Phil Combies and Robin Olds and his broader Air Force career: he joined upon graduating college in 1955 and his first operational assignment was as a B-47 Stratojet navigator/bomber at Strategic Air Command, trained to drop thermonuclear bombs with precision. From 1957 to 1963, he logged over two thousand hours as a radar bombardier in B-47 Stratojets and B-52 C models. In this memoir of Vietnam, his Air Force career, and his second career as a journalist and writer, Zeybel's admiration of the skill and bravery of pilots, many of whom he depended on for his very survival, shines through his descriptions of combat missions and being along for the ride. Simply riveting, impressively informative, and exceptionally well-written. Midwest Book
