International Bestsellers and the Online Reconfiguring of National Identity Rachel Noorda, Millicent Weber, Melanie Ramdarshan Bold, 2024-05-23 International bestsellers are the ideal sites for examining the complicated relationship between literary culture and national identity Despite the transnational turns in both literary studies and book history place is still an important configurer of twenty first century book reception Books are crucial to national identity and catalysts of nationalist movements On an individual level books enable readers to shape and maintain their own national identities This Element explores how contemporary readers understandings of nation race ethnicity gender and class continue to shape their reading using as case studies the online reception of three bestseller titles Liane Moriarty s Big Little Lies Australia Zadie Smith s NW UK and Kevin Kwan s Crazy Rich Asians USA In doing so this Element demonstrates the need for and articulates a transnational conceptualisation of the relationship between reader identity and reception
