The China Collectors Karl E. Meyer, Shareen Blair Brysac, 2025-06-25 Thanks to Salem sea captains Gilded Age millionaires curators on horseback and missionaries gone native North American museums now possess the greatest collections of Chinese art outside of East Asia itself How did it happen The China Collectors is the first full account of a century long treasure hunt in China from the Opium Wars and the Boxer Rebellion to Mao Zedong's 1949 ascent The principal gatherers are mostly little known and defy invention They included foreign devils who braved desert sandstorms bandits and local warlords in acquiring significant works Adventurous curators like Langdon Warner a forebear of Indiana Jones argued that the caves of Dunhuang were already threatened by vandals thereby justifying the removal of frescoes and sculptures Other Americans include George Kates an alumnus of Harvard Oxford and Hollywood who fell in love with Ming furniture The Chinese were divided between dealers who profited from the artworks removal and scholars who sought to protect their country's patrimony Duanfang the greatest Chinese collector of his era was beheaded in a coup and his splendid bronzes now adorn major museums Others in this rich tapestry include Charles Lang Freer an enlightened Detroit entrepreneur two generations of Rockefellers and Avery Brundage the imperious Olympian and Arthur Sackler the grand acquirer No less important are two museum directors Cleveland's Sherman Lee and Kansas City's Laurence Sickman who challenged the East Coast's hegemony Shareen Blair Brysac and Karl E Meyer even handedly consider whether ancient treasures were looted or salvaged and whether it was morally acceptable to spirit hitherto inaccessible objects westward where they could be studied and preserved by trained museum personnel And how should the US and Canada and their museums respond now that China has the means and will to reclaim its missing patrimony Backpacker, 2000-04 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured The New Yorker, 1999 Tragedy in the Age of Oprah Louis Fantasia, 2012-12-21 In an era of Twitter and televised therapy it may seem that classic theatre has little place in contemporary society Accustomed to the indulgences of a celebrity driven culture how can modern audiences understand and interpret classic works of drama In Tragedy in the Age of Oprah Essays on Five Great Plays Louis Fantasia provides a provocative examination of the relationship between popular culture and classical tragedy Making a persuasive argument for the lessons tragedy has to offer today's audiences Fantasia examines five enduring works of theatre Euripides Medea William Shakespeare's King Lear Jean Racine's Ph dre Friedrich Schiller's Mary Stuart and Eugene O'Neill's Long Day's Journey into Night Fantasia discusses in detail each of these plays framing them in a contemporary context that explores the suffering responsibility and identity that tragedy advocates Each play is presented as an engaging powerful encounter for the reader recreating as closely as possible the impact of a great performance A unique look at the role classical theatre can and should play in contemporary society these essays reveal the lessons great plays have to teach us about ourselves Directed toward theatre professionals and students Tragedy in the Age of Oprah will also resonate with anyone interested in theatre literature and cultural studies
