are fierce rivals for the girl they both love and an even bigger problem threatens them all. The unsuspecting human population of the world hangs in the balance of an approaching war between Dark and Light. Powerful fan pods have transformed the face of the country. It's abnormal NOT to be in one now. The Dark Council's plan is almost accomplished and they are nearly ready to reveal themselves and take back rulership of the world as it was in the old days before the history books were written. Ryann can't believe the Nox she knows and loves would allow that to happen though he is now deeply entrenched in the Dark Court and seems to be changing by the day. Is his love for Ryann strong enough to give him the strength to stand against his people and their plot? Or should she side with Lad and the Light Court who appear to have the welfare of humans in mind? He is fighting the looming danger hard as he can, fully involved now in the world of Elven politics he tried so hard to avoid. And what can Ryann, only a partial Fae, personally do? She will have to learn to balance her own Dark and Light sides and somehow make the right choice between two tempting Fae guys or face the consequences of a wrong decision eternally and watch her family and the entire human world fall under the oppression of the Dark Court.

Mark of the Raven (The Ravenwood Saga Book #1) Morgan L. Busse, 2018-11-06 Lady Selene is the heir to the Great House of Ravenwood and the secret family gift of dreamwalking. As a dreamwalker, she can enter a person's dreams and manipulate their greatest fears or desires. For the last hundred years, the Ravenwood women have used their gift of dreaming for hire to gather information or to assassinate. As she discovers her family's dark secret, Selene is torn between upholding her family's legacy, a legacy that supports her people, or seeking the true reason behind her family's gift. Her dilemma comes to a head when she is tasked with assassinating the one man who can bring peace to the nations but who will also bring about the downfall of her own house. One path holds glory and power and will solidify her position as Lady of Ravenwood. The other path holds shame and execution. Which will she choose? And is she willing to pay the price for the path chosen?
