Research to Practice Alice J. Kawakami-Arakaki,1988 Social Ecology of a Chinese Kindergarten Shuangshuang Xu,Giuseppina Marsico,2020-11-16 This book is the outcome of a joint collaboration between East China Normal University and the University of Luxembourg initiated by the Center of Ideas for the Basic Education of the Future IBEF and focuses on kindergartens in China from a cultural psychology perspective By coupling young scholars from diverse cultural backgrounds as research tandems this book uses an innovative methodological method to reveal a deeply immersing research perspective of the often complicated issues in the Chinese social reality where long historical tradition and strong motivation for a modernized future are fused together and continuously evolve itself into a vibrant and intricate landscape Meanings and values consciously or unconsciously promoted and conducted in the kindergarten are semiotic devices and they mediate children s and educator s daily behaviours and activities which are constantly navigating among different social institutions and crossing the border of kindergarten The book discusses the process of children s socialization in the kindergarten from different angles such as cultural objects moral education conflict negotiation children s drawing analysis and the role of Lego in numeracy development It also provides an overview of basic educational needs in Chinese kindergartens as well as three commentaries to provide background information and to add a reflective angle for the readers By reading the book readers will hopefully go through a constantly transforming process between familiarizing and de familiarizing along with the research tandem and develop their own understanding of the complex landscape of the Chinese kindergarten and its children as developing subjects constantly living and transcending the context confront children learning to read and write English specifically are less evident or even non-existent in other populations. At the same time, some aspects of learning to read and write are very similar across scripts. The unique cross-linguistic perspective offered in this book, including chapters on Japanese, Greek, and the Scandinavian languages as well as English, shows how the processes of learning to read and spell are affected by the characteristics of the writing system that children are learning to master.
