Reflections on Science, Religion and Society: A Medical Perspective Joseph B Martin,2017-06-28 Throughout his long and distinguished career in medicine and neuroscience Dr

Joseph B Martin has had the honor of delivering speeches to graduating students professional societies and academic conferences As both a lifelong Anabaptist and prominent member of the scientific community his talks often focus on how to balance the spiritual and logical sides of our being to become healthier and more productive members of society Collected here are several of Dr Martin s speeches from over more than fifty years as an academic and doctor They reflect his evolving views on science and spirituality and explore how that confluence is at the center of some of today s most important and controversial issues Interspersed with commentary to provide further context and reflection the talks reflect the changes we have seen as a society deeply entrenched in technological advances and religious tensions Through them Dr Martin helps us to understand both the world around us and the world within The Publishing Business Kelvin Smith,2014-07-17

Publishing is undergoing a sea change Technology has transformed the relationship between writers and readers and many people suspect that publishing as we know it can t survive And yet publishing remains a popular career choice for many creative graduates The Publishing Business is an invaluable guide to understanding what book publishing is and what it might become Using popular and current examples Kelvin Smith demonstrates that to succeed publishers must prove their commitment to producing accurate attractive and well edited content their ability to innovate pioneering digital technologies and their dedication to promoting their titles to new audiences If your ambition is to succeed in the world of publishing owning a copy of The Publishing Business is a must Ideal for students wanting to discover which part of the publishing process is for them and all those who wish to fully grasp the debates and industry developments revolutionising publishing today Hardboiled and High Heeled Linda Mizejewski,2004-06 Can a gumshoe wear high heels In a genre long dominated by men women are now taking their place as authors and as characters alongside hardboiled legends like Sam Spade and Mike Hammer Hardboiled and High Heeled examines the meteoric rise of the female detective in contemporary film television and literature Epitomized by such icons as Clarice Starling of Silence of the Lambs Agent Scully of The X Files and Cagney and Lacey and the heroines in best selling novels by Sue Grafton and Patricia Cornwell the woman detective has become a top selling commodity with a hungry fan base The number of female investigator novels has tripled every five years since 1985 Today there are nearly 700 women writers of detective fiction and more than 800 book series devoted to female detectives In this book Linda Mizejewski author of Ziegfeld Girl examines the far reaching appeal of the woman detective She argues that the female detective attracts a wide range of fans straight and gay male and female by rebuking tradition and overturning gender stereotypes Richly illustrated and written with a fan s love of the genre Hardboiled and High Heeled is an essential introduction to women in detective fiction from past to present from pulp fiction to blockbuster films Best Sellers ,1967 Epidemic Cinema Julia Echeverría,2023-12-08 This book examines the recent trend in global cinema to feature infectious disease As the global crisis of the COVID 19 pandemic materialised the anxieties and discourses of world risk that had long been portrayed in popular media the book provides a novel definition of the epidemic film genre and offers a systematic look into the narrative and stylistic conventions that characterise it Epidemic Cinema traces the evolution of the genre from its early cinematic origins to establish the founding principles of a genre standing at the crossroads between science fiction and horror It draws on close textual analysis to show how the pandemic reified one of the central predicaments of epidemic narratives the constant tension existing between free floating phenomena and the impulse to control and resist such phenomena ultimately epitomised by the trope of the border Showing how infectious diseases offer a rich allegorical frame which cinema uses to articulate timely anxieties of growingly invisible and deterritorialised risks the author presents the prevalence of contagion in popular culture as a symptom of this growingly viral and virus ridden context both in its most literal and metaphorical sense This insightful study will interest students and scholars of film studies global cinema science fiction horror popular culture and genre theory The Pentagon's Brain Annie Jacobsen,2015-09-15

Discover the definitive history of DARPA the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency in this Pulitzer Prize finalist from the author of the New York Times bestseller Area 51 No one has ever written the history of the Defense Department s most secret most powerful and most controversial military science R D agency In the first ever history about the organization New York Times bestselling author Annie Jacobsen draws on inside sources exclusive interviews private documents and declassified memos to paint a picture of DARPA or the Pentagon s brain from its Cold War inception in 1958 to the present This is the book on DARPA a compelling narrative about this clandestine intersection of science and the American military and the often frightening results The Publishers Weekly ,2008 Smashwords Book Marketing Guide (2018
