Spring Chicken Stay Young Forever Or Die Trying:

Spring Chicken Bill Gifford, 2015-09 We've been tantalised by the idea of eternal youth since time immemorial. We're always asking how we can live longer and better. Or to put it another way, why can't we all be like Madame Calment who cycled till she was 100, smoked till she was 117 and died at the wonderfully old age of 122. In Spring Chicken, veteran reporter Bill Gifford takes us for a rip-roaring ride along the trail to the fountain of youth. Meet the scientists who have doubled the life expectancy of mice by knocking out a single gene, and others like Aubrey de Grey who says our children could go on to live for a thousand years, or maybe five thousand. Discover why some people live longer than others: one study of London residents even showed that where you get off the Tube can make a huge difference to how long you live. In Spring Chicken, Gifford separates fact and fiction, exposing the hoaxes and scams foisted upon our ageing society while also revealing what you should do and what you definitely shouldn't do to stay younger for longer. An intoxicating mixture of deep reporting and fascinating science, it is an addictive account of our quest to cure ageing and defeat death. A Joosr Guide to ... *Spring Chicken

Chicken by Bill Gifford Joors,2016 Be Bold Marilyn Willison,2019-08-08 Former international journalist and Los Angeles Times Health and Fitness editor Marilyn Murray Willison approaches aging with an optimistic curiosity and an undisguised enthusiasm Her syndicated column Positive Aging includes practical information from health to family legacy to gratitude to travel inspirational stories current events and personal anecdotes she hopes will inspire other seniors to age with grace and get the most out of each and every day This is a collection of her columns from 2016 to 2018 Spring

Chicken Bill Gifford, 2015-09-24 We've been tantalised by the idea of eternal youth since time immemorial. We're always asking how we can live longer and better. Or to put it another way, why can't we all be like Madame Calment who cycled till she was 100, smoked till she was 117 and died at the wonderfully old age of 122. Join veteran reporter Bill Gifford for a rip-roaring ride along the trail to the fountain of youth. Meet the scientists who have doubled the life expectancy of mice by knocking out a single gene and others like Aubrey de Grey who claims that we are on the cusp of achieving longevity escape velocity and who predicts that our children could live for a thousand years. An intoxicating mixture of deep reporting, fascinating science and sound advice. Spring Chicken will reveal the extraordinary breakthroughs that may yet bring us eternal youth while exposing the dangerous deceptions that prey on the innocent and ignorant. Choosing to Be

Austad, 2023-08-15 Stories of long lived animal species from thousand year old tubeworms to 400 year old sharks and what they might teach us about human health and longevity Opossums in the wild don't make it to the age of three our pet cats

can live for a decade and a half cicadas live for seventeen years spending most of them underground Whales however can live for two centuries and tubeworms for several millennia Meanwhile human life expectancy tops out around the mid eighties with some outliers living past 100 or even 110 Is there anything humans can learn from the exceptional longevity of some animals in the wild In Methusaleh s Zoo Steven Austad tells the stories of some extraordinary animals considering why for example animal species that fly live longer than earthbound species and why animals found in the ocean live longest of all Austad the leading authority on longevity in animals argues that the best way we will learn from these long lived animals is by studying them in the wild Accordingly he proceeds habitat by habitat examining animals that spend most of their lives in the air comparing insects birds and bats animals that live on and under the ground from mole rats to elephants and animals that live in the sea including quahogs carp and dolphins Humans have dramatically increased their lifespan with only a limited increase in healthspan we re more and more prone to diseases as we grow older By contrast these species have successfully avoided both environmental hazards and the depredations of aging Can we be more like them ALIVE OR NOT ALIVE Niran Ojomo, MD ,2023-07-17 ALIVE OR NOT ALIVE In a world craving holistic well being Alive or not Alive takes readers on a transformative journey through the intricate workings of the mind body and soul This captivating book dives into the depths of cognitive physical emotional social environmental and financial wellness unveiling the secrets to unlocking one s true potential From the thought provoking Prologue The Mustard Seed to the enlightening Epilogue What Darwin Didn t know this comprehensive guide explores the fascinating realm of human existence In Part I Cognitive Wellness readers discover the power of good judgment the influence of biases on decision making and the truth behind the 10 per cent brain myth Part II Physical Wellness challenges conventional notions about sleep introduces dance as a path to staying sharp and reveals the surprising resilience of centenarian athletes Moving forever young into Part III Emotional Wellness the book delves into transformational effects of humor journaling and emotional health on overall well being Part IV Social Wellness explores the interconnectedness of community and the scientific approach to fostering meaningful relationships In Part V Environment Wellness readers are inspired to find their way towards sustainable living and embrace the power of light Finally Part VI Financial Wellness explores the intricate relationship between our financial health and overall well being revealing the secrets of a healthy financial brain Throughout the book captivating stories insightful anecdotes and compelling research come together to create a tapestry of knowledge that empowers readers to live their best lives ALIVE OR NOT ALIVE is an invitation to step into a world where mind body and soul converge It provides a roadmap for individuals seeking to unlock their true potential and achieve optimal well being With its thought provoking content practical insight expert guidance this book is an invaluable resource for anyone on a journey toward Wholistic Wellness Transformed States Martin Halliwell,2024-11-15 Transformed States offers a timely history of the politics ethics medical applications and cultural representations of the biotechnological revolution from the Human Genome Project to the COVID 19 pandemic In exploring the entanglements of mental and physical health in an age of biotechnology it views the post Cold War 1990s as the horizon for understanding the intersection of technoscience and culture in the early twenty first century The book draws on original research spanning the presidencies of George H W Bush and Joe Biden to show how the politics of science and technology shape the medical uses of biotechnology Some of these technologies reveal fierce ideological conflicts in the arenas of cloning reproduction artificial intelligence longevity gender affirmation vaccination and environmental health Interweaving politics and culture the book illustrates how these health issues are reflected in and challenged by literary and cinematic texts from Oryx and Crake to Annihilation and from Gattaca to Avatar By assessing the complex relationship between federal politics and the biomedical industry Transformed States develops an ecological approach to public health that moves beyond tensions between state governance and private enterprise To that end Martin Halliwell analyzes thirty years that radically transformed American science medicine and policy positioning biotechnology in dialogue with fears and fantasies about an emerging future in which health is ever more contested Along with the two earlier books Therapeutic Revolutions 2013 and Voices of Mental Health 2017 Transformed States is the final volume of a landmark cultural and intellectual history of mental health in the United States journeying from the combat zones of World War II to the global emergency of COVID 19

Storied Health and Illness Jill Yamasaki, Patricia Geist-Martin, Barbara F. Sharf, 2016-07-01 Health and illness are storied experiences that necessarily entail personal cultural and political complexities For all of us communicating about health and illness requires a continuous negotiation of these complexities and a delicate balance between what we learn about the biology of disease from providers and our own very personal subjective experiences of being ill Storied Health and Illness brings together dozens of noteworthy scholars both established and emerging in a provocative collection that embraces narrative ways of knowing to think about analyze and reconsider our own and others health beliefs behaviors and communication Comprehensive content reflects the editors substantial research in integrative health narrative care and innovative ways of improving well being and quality of life in personal relationships healthcare the workplace and community settings Unique narrative approaches to the study of health communication include 14 chapters written by 22 contributors who use engaging stories from their own research or personal experience to introduce and ground foundational communication concepts in healthcare health promotion community support organizational wellness and other health related sites of interest Compelling stories of individuals living with the inherent challenges and unexpected opportunities of mental illness addiction aging cancer dialysis sexual harassment miscarriage obesity alopecia breastfeeding health threats to immigrant workers developmental differences and youth gun violence 36 Health Communication in Action HCIA sidebars that highlight applied research of innovative health communication scholars in their own words and then prompt readers to think more deeply about their own perspectives and experiences Theorizing Practice boxes that encourage readers to reflect on stories that describe significant experiences in their own and others lives as they consider assumptions and enlarge their
