Andrea Simitch, Val Warke

Steven Holl Color Lig:

Designing with Light Victoria Meyers, 2006 In the first chapter of Designing with Light Meyers summarizes recent developments in the science of light and their cultural impact and then surveys the uses of light in contemporary visual art theater film and even music This overview reveals how the work of artists as diverse as videographer Bill Viola stage director Robert Wilson and composer John Cage can lend architects insight into the properties of light Each of the following chapters is devoted to one aspect of light in contemporary architecture beginning with Color and continuing with Lines Form Glass Windows Sky Frames Shadows and finally Reflections Within these chapters some two hundred vivid color photographs illustrate the myriad ways in which architects like Zaha Hadid Herzog de Meuron Rem Koolhaas and John Pawson have employed light internally and externally in their recent commissions Enriched with this abundance of images as well as with numerous insights from Meyers's own architectural practice Designing with Light will appeal to every student practitioner and enthusiast of contemporary architecture

BOOK JACKET Steven Holl Steven Holl, 2002 An overview of the built work of architect Steven Holl Idea and Phenomena focuses on the sculptural expression inherent in his designs material composition and use of light Apparent in such projects as his Makuhari Housing in Chiba Japan where he designed a new city block on dredged fill at the rim of Tokyo Bay Holl has devoted over 20 years of his professional life to exploring the use of movable walls for creating variety and what he calls spaces for individual life Even more essential to his oeuvre is what critic Herbert Muschamp has described as its astonishing sculptural presence created from the strikingly assured interplay between windows and walls curves and grids voids and planes In his fine fibred use of materials Holl employs his principle of the stone and the feather juxtaposing thin sheets of zinc roofing with rough concrete walls along knife edged junctures The results as Idea and Phenomena clearly shows from the first sketch to the final construction are buildings alert to emotional needs the spiritual properties of space and the specifics of their own surroundings

The Built Environment Wendy R. McClure, Tom J. Bartuska, 2011-09-09 This book takes a sweeping view of the ways we build things beginning at the scale of products and interiors to that of regions and global systems In doing so it answers questions on how we effect and are affected by our environment and explores how components of what we make from products buildings and cities are interrelated and why designers and planners must consider these connections

The Language of Architecture Andrea Simitch, Val Warke, 2014-06 DIV Learning a new discipline is similar to learning a new language in order to master the foundation of architecture you must first master the basic building blocks of its language the definitions function and usage Language of Architecture provides students and professional architects with the basic elements of architectural design divided into twenty six easy to comprehend chapters This visual reference includes an introductory historical view of the elements as well as an overview of how these elements can and have been used across multiple design disciplines divDIV divDIV Whether you're new to the field or have been an architect for years you'll want to flip through the pages of this book throughout your career and use it as the go to reference for inspiration ideas and reminders of how a strong knowledge of the basics allows for meaningful memorable and beautiful fashions that extend beyond trends

Intertwining: Steven Holl, 1996-04 To his earlier articulated concept of anchoring which connects a construction with the history of the ground locale and region Holl adds the concept of intertwining which is illuminated by sensory perceptual conceptual and emotional experiences Illustrates with drawings plans and photographs projects in Japan Finland Germany Switzerland Holland Korea and Norway No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Sensory Architecture Juliana Duarte Neves, 2024-05-02 Originally released in 2017 the book Sensory Architecture The Art of Designing for All Senses by Juliana Duarte Neves receives a second edition in 2024 revised and expanded Over the past six years there have been numerous advancements in the study of sensory architecture and many initiatives focused on emotionally engaging the visitor using the principles of sensory architecture which has become a gateway to new fields of research This second edition brings a refinement of the design methodology proposed in the original book and current examples that make its understanding and applicability clearer And the new chapter Unfolding of Sensory Architecture presents two examples of more recent areas of study This new edition broadens horizons with the inclusion of two fundamental contributions to the consolidation of the field of sensory architecture studies in Brazil the excellent reflections made by Lor Cr zel in the text The intertwining of sensory architecture with neuroarchitecture a synesthetic exploration and the very personal contribution of Ana Paula Chacur architect researcher and mother of two autistic children enriches the content with her unique perspective on Autism Spectrum Disorder and sensory architecture points out Juliana It is crucial that architecture collaborates so that individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder ASD feel safe and balanced

Color in the Office Sara O. Marberry, 1994 Both a pictorial history and a sourcebook for achieving or studying retro style this volume provides a visual and editorial timeline of how architects and interior designers have used color decoratively in American offices since 1950 All important color styles are analyzed and placed in historical perspective Color photographs display an exemplary collection of international traditional postmodern and neoclassical office designs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans, S.J., 2015-01-08 In Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans who graduated as an architect and a theologian provides an interdisciplinary method for the theological assessment of church architecture Rather than a theory this method is based on case studies of contemporary buildings 1995 2015 which are often criticized for lacking theological depth In a threefold method the author brings to light the ways in which architecture can be theology or theotopy by focusing on topoi places rather than logoi words Churches reveal our relationship with God by engaging our body mind and community This method proves relevant not only for the way we perceive these buildings but also for the way we use them especially in our prophetic engagement for a better world

The Chapel of St. Ignatius Steven Holl, 1999-07 Reveals Holl's working method from watercolor sketches to working drawings to construction shots Architecture INTL Nancy Solomon, 2008-05-27 On the occasion of its 150th anniversary the American Institute of Architects asked more than 70 contributors to examine the complex and evolving of the America s architects in shaping our cities and communities Through essays vignettes and profiles illustrated with more than 560 photographs Architecture provides a look at the breath and depth of the architecture profession and points to the significant contributions architects have made in all aspects of society Most important the book demonstrates the value of applying architectural thinking to the many serious issues from global warming and homeland security to accessibility and diversity facing our world today BOOK JACKET
