Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy Kingdom Ethics, 2nd ed. David P. system The universal experience of suffering and death is the unifying starting point of that anthropology Therefore in medicine where physicians and patients meet as utter strangers not only as moral strangers hospitality highlights the human dignity and vulnerability of both parties and establishes gratitude compassion and solidarity as the constructive building blocks of a healing practice of medicine and a humane medical system locally and globally

Reclaiming the Radical Economic Message of Luke David D. M. King, 2022-05-13 No canonical Gospel is more concerned with wealth and poverty than Luke A centuries long debate rages over just how revolutionary Luke's message is This book seeks to recover Luke's radical economic message to place it in its ancient context and to tease out its prophetic implications for today Luke has a radical message of good news for the poor and resistance to wealth God is shown to favor the poor championing their struggle for justice while condemning the rich and recommending a sweeping disposal of wealth for the benefit of the poor This represents a distinct break from the ethics of the Roman Empire and a profound challenge to modern economic systems Generations of interpreters have worked to file down Luke's sharp edges from scribes copying ancient manuscripts to early Christian authors to contemporary scholars Such domestication disfigures the gospel silencing its critique of an economic system whose unrelenting drive for profit and economic growth continues to widen the gap between rich and poor while threatening life altering environmental change It is time to reclaim the bracing prophetic call of Luke's economic message that warns against the destructive power of wealth and insists on justice for the poor and marginalized Restorative Hope Sarah F. Farmer, 2024-03-14 How theological education can engender life giving hope for incarcerated women Amid dehumanizing conditions incarcerated people strive to generate hope As one returning citizen explains Hope is not just sitting around waiting for things to change Hope is not always an individual making things change Hope is sometimes a community making things change What can theologians teachers and chaplains do to assist their work Sarah F Farmer amplifies the voices of women who are or have been incarcerated to learn what supports their flourishing Combining theology and sociology Farmer shows how theological education can help cultivate the resilience and connection that women describe as life giving in and after prison Based in her own ministry this pedagogy incorporates artistic expression and critical thinking about justice to cultivate agency Restorative Hope will open readers eyes to the lived realities of the US penitentiary system Educators and theologians seeking to serve those in prison will find a wealth of firsthand perspective and practical resources in these pages Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God s Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways Interrogating the Language of “Self” and “Other” in the History of Modern Christian Mission Man-Hei Yip, 2020-08-05 This book offers a critical analysis of the use of language in mission studies Language and Christian missionary activity intersect in complicated ways to objectify the other in cross cultural situations Rethinking missiological language is both urgent and necessary to subvert narratives that continue to fetishize the other as cultural stereotypes The project takes a step forward to reconceptualize otherness as gift and such an affirmation should create a pathway for human flourishing and furthermore open new avenues for missiological exploration to address issues arising from a world dominated by bigoted discourses lies and hate speech
