Spaces of Security Setha Low, Mark Maguire, 2019-01-22 An ethnographic investigation into the dynamics between space and security in countries around the world It is difficult to imagine two contexts as different as a soccer stadium and a panic room Yet they both demonstrate dynamics of the interplay between security and space This book focuses on the infrastructures of security considering locations as varied as public entertainment venues to border walls to blast proof bedrooms Around the world experts organizations and governments are managing societies in the name of security while scholars and commentators are writing about surveillance state violence and new technologies Yet in spite of the growing emphasis on security few truly consider the spatial dimensions of security and particularly how the relationship between space and security varies across cultures This volume explores spaces of security not only by attending to how security is produced by and in spaces but also by emphasizing the ways in which it is constructed in the contemporary landscape The book explores diverse contexts ranging from biometrics in India to counterterrorism in East Africa to border security in Argentina The ethnographic studies demonstrate the power of a spatial lens to highlight aspects of security that otherwise remain hidden while also adding clarity to an elusive and dangerous way of managing the world

Aerial Visibilities Dennis Zuev, Gary Bratchford, 2025-05-02 This book brings together diverse perspectives from a range of geographic settings and feature contributions from some of the key thinkers in the field It explores various facets of the relationship between verticality and visibility offering insights that deepen the understanding of this dynamic dyad This volume brings the sky and air into the view of visual sociology and argues that there is more to the sky than phenomenological and geopolitical dimensions The chapters use the common thread of aerial visibilities to emphasise the need to rethink the aerial in terms of complex relations between humans technological artefacts and devices vertical superstructures and non human others This rethinking helps unsettle notions of aerial biopolitics The chapters in this book foreground the visual to ask to what end the image of or efforts to create images through vertical registers shapes our understanding of the vertical world the communities and users this vertical world engages or impacts upon This book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of visual sociology geography urban studies media studies anthropology and cultural studies as well as those exploring the intersection of technology politics and spatial theory The chapters in this book were originally published in Visual Studies
