What Readers Do Beth Driscoll, 2024-03-21 An exploration of the 21st century everyday Anglophone reader and their private and social behaviors in a digital world. This book examines how readers engage with each other and the consumer publishing industry. Reviewing Culture Online

Maarit Jaakkola, 2021-12-02 This book examines how ordinary users review cultural products online ranging from books to films and other art objects to consumer products. The book maps different communities in institutional and non-institutional settings which intersect with the genre of review especially in the social web where reviewing is conducted on platforms such as Instagram, YouTube, and Vimeo. The book drawing on the key concepts of cultural intermediation, platformized cultural production, and post-professionalism looks at user-generated content in lifestyle communities beyond the binary of professional and amateur production.

The Summer Melt Emily March, 2023-06-01 Indulge in this sweet summer romance bursting with small town charm in this novella by New York Times best-selling author Emily March. It's peak tourist season in Eternity Springs and Dana Delaney has her hands full running her ice cream parlor Scoops. The last thing she needs is for her star employee to fall sick, but she's in luck when a newcomer to town offers to fill in, and the fact that he's sinfully handsome with a sexy Scottish accent is an added treat. A list sports agent Cal Buchanan is visiting Eternity Springs to scout marriage proposal locations for a client, not get distracted by the beautiful owner of the local ice cream parlor. But when she's short-staffed, he can't resist the opportunity to dip in and help. If he plays it right, she might even return the favor and give him a tour of the town's most romantic destinations. Will their attraction lead to a romance more decadent than Scoops Double Chocolate Toffee Crunch, or will it melt away by summer's end?
