Enlightenment Dialogues Martin Treon, 2011-07-07 Preface This combined narrative dialogue and play is about the uncreated unborn and undying transcendent Self of God consciousness and Buddha nature It describes an odyssey of transcendent Consciousness Awakening and Remembrance as viewed from transpersonal and primarily post metaphysical Onliness Way of Enlightenment perspective The conversational interaction between the two characters of this book which concerns their shared journey of transcendental Nondual Spirit as Spirit Consciousness Realization is primarily intended to be read as a narrative dialogue However it is also created and structured in play format and is intended to be presented to an audience as a play And herein lies a formidable presentation problem As a play it almost certainly has a very limited audience appeal In relation to the current content tastes of people of a general audience the play has no scenes of violence gun play murder fighting battles sex scenes yelling screaming car chases flying saucers and no bad guys versus good guys monsters vampires aliens or cyborgs The play simply involves the quiet dialogue between two characters over a sixteen year period set in various scenic locations So speaking from the more cynical and pessimistic side of egoic self I would say to borrow the phrase of the burly Mr T of the old TV series called The A Team I pity the fool who tries to present this play to a general audience This would almost certainly be a disaster On the other hand I suspect that there is a small or should I say very small and select audience of people who would variously enjoy and appreciate this play and derive useful meaning and insight from it So speaking from the more optimistic and supportive side of egoic self I would praise and encourage anyone any producer director cast and crew who had the courage chutzpah and theatrical nerve and skills to present this play to any audience selective or otherwise
