Wreford,2008-05-01 In the current model of health dispensation in South Africa there are two major paradigms the spirit inspired tradition of izangoma sinyanga and biomedicine These operate at best in parallel but more often than not are at odds with one another This book based on the author s personal experience as a practitioner of traditional African medicine considers the effects of the absence of spirit in biomedicine on collaborative relationships Given the unprecedented challenge of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the country the author suggests that more cooperation is vital Taking a critical look at the role of anthropology in this endeavor she proposes the development of a language of spirit by means of which the spirit inspired aetiology of izangoma sinyanga may be made comprehensible to academic scientists and applicable to medical interventions The author discusses white izangoma in the context of current debates on healing and hybridity and insists that there exists a powerful role for izangoma in the realm of societal healing Above all the book constitutes a start in what the author hopes will develop into an ongoing intellectual conversation between traditional African healing academe and biomedicine in South Africa

Robert E. Butts, 2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn American Horror Story and Cult Television Richard Hand, Mark O Thomas, 2023-11-14 Over the course of ten seasons since 2011 the television series American Horror Story AHS created by Ryan Murphy and Brad Falchuk has continued to push the boundaries of the televisual form in new and exciting ways Emerging in a context which has seen a boom in popularity for horror series on television AHS has distinguished itself from its rivals such as The Walking Dead Bates

Motel or Penny Dreadful through its diverse strategies and storylines which have seen it explore archetypal narratives of horror culture as well as engage with real historical events Utilising a repertory company model for its casting the show has challenged issues around contemporary politics heteronormativity violence on the screen and disability to name but a few This new collection of essays approaches the AHS anthology series from a variety of critical perspectives within the broader field of television studies and its transections with other disciplines

The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss,2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Watermark 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoire d'A 1966 History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen

Waking the Witch Pam Grossman,2020-10-06 From the podcast host of The Witch Wave and practicing witch Pam Grossman who Vulture has dubbed the Terry Gross of witches comes an exploration of the world's fascination with witches why they have intrigued us for centuries and why they're more relevant now than ever When you think of a witch what do you picture Pointy black hat maybe a broomstick But witches in various guises have been with us for millennia In Waking the Witch Pam Grossman explores the impact of the world's most magical icon From the idea of the femme fatale in league with the devil to the bewitching pop culture archetypes in Sabrina the Teenage Witch and Harry Potter from the spooky ladies in fairy tales to the rise of contemporary witchcraft witches reflect the power and potential of women Part cultural analysis part memoir Waking the Witch traces the author's own journey on the path to witchcraft and how this has helped her find self empowerment and purpose It celebrates witches past present and future and reveals the critical role they have played and will continue to play in the world as we know it Deftly illuminating the past while beckoning us towards the future Waking the Witch has all the makings of a feminist classic Wise relatable and real Pam Grossman is the witch we need for our times Ami McKay author of The Witches of New York

The Physical in Spiritualism George Whitefield Samson,1881 Witches, Druids and King Arthur Ronald Hutton,2006-09-15 In Stations of the Sun and The Triumph of the Moon Ronald Hutton established himself as a leading authority on the historian of Paganism His wealth of unusual knowledge complemented by a deep and sympathetic understanding of past and present beliefs that are often dismissed as strange or marginal and an ability to write lucidly and wittily gives his work a unique flavour The essays which make up Witches Druids and King Arthur cover elegantly and entertainingly a wide range of beliefs myths and practices The DNA Mystique Dorothy Nelkin,M. Susan Lindee,2004-07-19 Explores the values assumptions and consequences of the circulation of DNA in popular culture

Spiritualism Tested George W. Samson,2022-08-04 Reprint of the original first published in 1860 "To Daimonion," George Whitefield Samson,1852 Speaking of Satan in Zambia Johanneke Kroesbergen-Kamps,2023-03-01 In this book it is argued that narratives about Satanism which have become popular in the Christian context of Zambia from the 1990s onwards make cultural sense because of their links to traditional African notions as well as contemporary Christian theologies These narratives also resonate with unease regarding the cultural change which is connected by Zambians to modernity Narratives about Satanism further make personal sense to their narrators the pastors who provide a platform for them and their audiences These arguments contribute to the academic study of religion in Africa in particular of African Christianity and of witchcraft related phenomena as well as to the global study of discourses on Satanism and other conspiracy theories All of these disciplines are related to the topic of Satanism in Zambia but the phenomenon itself has not been discussed at length which makes the existing academic literature incomplete and inadequate The comprehensive focus on the case of narratives about Satanism in Zambia offers new insights and enhances current theoretical reflection The research presented in this book is original carried out during fieldwork spanning from 2012 to 2017 in Zambia and literature study in the years after that Methodologically the research is based on participant observation in churches in which testimonies of ex Satanists were presented as well as participation in the Fingers of Thomas a Roman Catholic group which investigates rumours about Satanism Furthermore it is based on interviews with pastors and students of theology active in the deliverance ministry from Pentecostal as well as mainline churches and also on interviews with people who have had experiences of Satanism Finally the research is based on an analysis of collected testimonies of ex Satanists as they were presented in these interviews in churches on radio programmes in newspapers and in other sources Knowing Fear Jason Colavito,2007-11-26 Tracing the development of horror entertainment since the late 18th century this study argues that scientific discovery technological progress and knowledge in general have played an unparalleled role in influencing the evolution of horror Throughout its many subgenres biological horror cosmic horror and others and formats film literature comics horror records humanity s uneasy relationship with its own ability to reason understand and learn The text first outlines a loose framework defining several distinct periods in horror development then explores each period sequentially by looking at the scientific and cultural background of the period its expression in horror literature and its expression in horror visual and performing arts

Undisciplined Women Pauline Greenhill,Diane Tye,1997 Redressing a neglect of women s traditions and feminist perspectives in Canadian folklore studies 20 contributions discuss female experiences of traditional culture from feminist viewpoints The authors look at the effect of gender on the collecting and interpreting of women s folklore negative and positive images of women in traditional and popular culture and women s use of creativity in their everyday lives Some contributors are nonacademics Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
