History of South Africa since September 1795, 1908 George McCall Theal 1837-1919 was a prolific South African historian and civil servant. After working as a missionary between 1875-1880, he was appointed magistrate of Tamacha, before taking a position as a clerk in the government and became Keeper of the Cape Colony Archives. He was appointed Colonial Historiographer in 1891. These volumes first published in 1908 contain Theal's detailed history of South Africa between 1795-1894. Focusing on the political history of the country, Theal explores the British control of Cape Colony and the reactions of the Dutch settlers to increasing British immigration, discussing the political consequences of the establishment of the various Boer Republics and the growth of Zulu power in South Africa. These volumes provide valuable details on the political history of South Africa and reveal contemporary attitudes towards the history and ideas of colonisation. Volume 5 covers the colonies between 1854-1894.

The History of Bethlem Jonathan Andrews, Asa Briggs, Roy Porter, Penny Tucker, Keir Waddington, 2013-06-17 Bethlem Hospital, popularly known as Bedlam, is a unique institution. Now seven hundred and fifty years old, it has been continuously involved in the care of the mentally ill in London since at least the 1400s. As such, it has a strong claim to be the oldest foundation in Europe with an unbroken history of sheltering and treating the mentally disturbed. During this time, Bethlem has transcended locality to become not only a national and international institution but in many ways a cultural and literary myth. The History of Bethlem is a scholarly history of this key establishment by distinguished authors including Asa Briggs and Roy Porter. Based upon extensive research of the hospital's archives, the book looks at Bethlem's role within the caring institutions of London and Britain and provides a long overdue re-evaluation of its place in the history of psychiatry.
