The Haunted Screen The Haunted Screen:

The Haunted Screen Lotte H. Eisner, 2008-09-29 The Golden Age of German cinema began at the end of the First World War and ended shortly after the coming of sound From The Cabinet of Dr Caligari onwards the principal films of this period were characterized by two influences literary Expressionism and the innovations of the theatre directors of this period in particular Max Reinhardt This book demonstrates the connection between German Romanticism and the cinema through Expressionist writings It discusses the influence of the theatre the handling of crowds the use of different levels and of selective lighting on a predominately dark stage the reliance on formalized gesture the innovation of the intimate theatre Against this background the principal films of the period are examined in detail The author explains the key critical concepts of the time and surveys not only the work of the great directors such as Fritz Lang and F W Murnau but also the contribution of their writers cameramen and designers As The Times Literary Supplement wrote Mme Eisner is first and foremost a film critic and one of the best in the world She has all the necessary gifts And it described the original French edition of this book as one of the very few classics of writing on the film and arguably the best book on the cinema yet written The Haunted Screen Lee Kovacs, 1999 While ghosts often inhabit films and literature devoted to the horror genre a group of literature based films from the 1930s and 1940s presents more human and romantic apparitions These films provide the underpinnings for many of the gentle supernatural films of the 1990s Tracing the links between specters as diverse as Rex Harrison s Captain Gregg and Patrick Swazye s Sam Wheat the text presents the evolution of the cinematic literary ghost from classic Gothic to the psychological sociological and political ideologies of today Included are analyses of the literary and film versions of classic ghost stories Wuthering Heights The Ghost and Mrs Muir Portrait of Jennie Letter from an Unknown Woman The Uninvited Liliom and Our Town as well as interpretations of modern films not based on literary works that show the influence of these predecessors Ghost and Truly Madly Deeply The text includes stills a bibliography and an index

The haunted screen Lotte H. Eisner, 1966 The Haunted Screen , 1998 Victims and Perpetrators: 1933-1945 Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Dagmar Wienroeder-Skinner, 2012-03-12 This volume examines the politics of history and memory in Germany today through a review and analysis of seminal developments in the current discourse on 1933 1945 An interdisciplinary work this book examines questions of representing the past from the perspective of literary studies social psychology film studies history and cultural studies Themes include transgenerational memory and remembrance the air war and German literature commemoration and silences transnational reconciliation and historical consciousness in the German present The collected essays make clear that as the current discourse contributes toward an historically informed differentiated understanding of individuals roles in the Third Reich and World War Two victim and perpetrator identities cannot be defined as exclusive from one another The discourse emphasizes personal over collective experience and answers questions of responsibility and guilt on the individual level The Haunted Screen J. M. Tyree, 2024-10-01 Informed by the eerie paranoia of horror film J M Tyree's uncanny novella follows a couple transplanted to Germany While in the throes of writing a book on Hitchcock's Vertigo a film scholar believes he's being followed by a strange presence Is this a supernatural force emanating from the prehistoric caves in the region one captured in lost footage from horror movies filmed in the area in the 1920s Or is he being stalked by his ex-a mentor former lover and brilliant but problematic critic who claims to have discovered the secret history of a supernatural camera used in films by Murnau and Hitchcock When our scholar's wife disappears and the local police start investigating him he attempts to unravel a mystery that takes him to Berlin to Prague and into the haunted heart of movies whose scenes appear to be recurring in the present Moving between the double life of professional networking and obsessive unease The Haunted Screen blends the madness and obsession of academia with a dark thrilling current of psychological mystery Murnau Lotte H. Eisner, 1973 The author does not completely deny Murnau's homosexual tendencies p 222 dm

Expressionist Film Dietrich Scheunemann, 2003 Beginning with a fundamentally new interpretation of Dr Caligari and with fresh views of other expressionist classics this book offers new perspectives on important alternative styles and genres that emerged in films by such eminent directors as Lubitsch Fritz Lang and E A Dupont A Critical History of German Film Stephen Brockmann, 2010 A history of German film dealing with individual films as works of art has long been needed Existing histories tend to treat cinema as an economic rather than an aesthetic phenomenon earlier surveys that do engage with individual films do not include films of recent decades This book treats representative films from the beginnings of German film to the present Providing historical context through an introduction and interchapters preceding the treatments of each era's films the volume is suitable for semester or year long survey courses and for anyone with an interest in German cinema The films The Student of Prague The Cabinet of Dr Caligari The Last Laugh Metropolis The Blue Angel M Triumph of the Will The Great Love The Murderers Are among Us Sun Seekers Trace of Stones The Legend of Paul and Paula Solo Sunny The Bridge Young T rless Aguirre The Wrath of God Germany in Autumn The Marriage of Maria Braun The Tin Drum Marianne and Juliane Wings of Desire Maybe Maybe Not Rossini Run Lola Run Good Bye Lenin Head On The Lives of Others Stephen Brockmann is Professor of German at Carnegie Mellon University and past President of the German Studies Association

Uncanny Histories in Film and Media Patrice Petro, 2022-06-17 Uncanny Histories in Film and Media probes the uncanny as a mode of historical analysis Whether writing about film movements individual works or the legacies of major or forgotten critics and theorists the contributors challenge our inherited narratives to reveal a disturbance of what was once familiar in the histories of our field
