While many books have been written about basic literacy few offer detailed information on how to plan and carry out a community literacy project Fewer still give guidance in tackling the additional barriers of language culture and logistics in developing countries and in treating the local community as an active partner rather than a passive recipient in the literacy process In Local Literacies Theory and Practice Glenys Waters includes these elements and presents a practical guide for developing a literacy program Beginning with a discussion of the theories of learning and reading the author provides a detailed description of how to plan and organize a literacy program when the practitioner has little to go on but wit knowledge and determination With approximately one half of the book given to the development of instructional methods and materials in reading writing and basic math Local Literacies will be especially helpful to those doing literacy work in linguistically diverse settings in much of the developing world The reader will quickly discover that this is a book written by a person who has been there and done that Waters has spent more than twenty years in Australia and Papua New Guinea both as a practitioner and a consultant in programs of literacy for adults and children This personal experience plus a thorough knowledge of the professional literature makes Local Literacies a must for the pioneering literacy worker American Samoa American Samoan Commission, 1931 Early Years , 1983 American Samoa, Hearings Before the Commission Appointed by the President of the United States...September 18-20, 1930, at Honolulu, September 26-30, in American Samoa United States. American Samoa Commission, 1931 The Well-Trained Mind Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2024-04-02

The classic handbook on home schooling updated for a new generation of parents and students Is your child getting lost in the system becoming bored losing his or her natural eagerness to learn If so it may be time to take charge of your child s education by doing it yourself The Well Trained Mind will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous comprehensive education from preschool through high school one that will train him or her to read to think to understand to be well rounded and curious about learning Veteran home educator Susan Wise Bauer outlines the classical pattern of education called the trivium which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child s mind and comprises three stages the elementary school grammar stage when the building blocks of information are absorbed through memorization and rules the middle school logic stage in which the student begins to think more analytically and the high school rhetoric stage where the student learns to write and speak with force and originality Using this theory as your model you ll be able to instruct your child whether full time or as a supplement to classroom education in all levels of reading writing history geography mathematics science foreign languages rhetoric logic art and music regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects A new optional Resource Recommendations Portal provides subscribers with curated lists of the best curricula for every grade level and learning style Thousands of parents have already used the methods described in The Well Trained Mind to create a truly superior education for children in their care You do have control over what and how your child learns The Well Trained Mind will give you the tools you ll need to teach your child with confidence and success
