As both veteran and private investigator Marcel Talwar knows this firsthand and he likes to think he'd never participate in such things. However that naive idea comes to a crashing end when he takes on a new case that quickly shatters his world view. A trail of evidence points to someone in Marcel's inner circle who's using him as a pawn to conduct grisly experiments, experiments that could lead to genocide. Now Marcel is more determined than ever to discover who's pulling the strings to this sinister plot. Buried Above Ground Mike Ripley, 2025-09-02. An original spin on the crime novel in which the race to gain the rights to an author's backlist proves to be more head scratching and deadly than the plots in his books. The Librarian. It's been two decades since mystery writer Duncan Torrens was last published. I should know I was his editor. So why a blogger would turn up asking questions about the rights to his books is beyond me. The Reader. That librarian Roly is a bit odd. You'd think he'd be happy with my blog's research into a largely forgotten author but he's resistant. If I can get into Duncan's home and his mysterious garden shed I know I'll find what I'm looking for. The Publisher. Torrens' books are crying out for a revival. I just need that blogger Jacon to work out who holds the rights to his backlist. Then I can acquire them before Duncan's old publishing house realises they've missed a trick. The Editor. I never worked directly with Duncan before he died but if someone is sniffing round there must be money involved. I just need to find out what's happened to the rights before they do. The Writer. After twenty years will the sudden interest in this author's forgotten mysteries reveal a dark and deadly twist. Told from the point of view of five unreliable narrators none of whom can be trusted. The Librarian. The Reader. The Publisher. The Editor. and The Writer. This amusing and darkly intriguing novel is a refreshingly fun subversive take on the crime fiction genre.
