Strategic Speed Jocelyn Davis, Henry M. Frechette, Edwin H. Boswell, 2010-06-01 Only 30 percent of strategic initiatives are successfully executed Of those that are most CEOs view the process as too slow What s going on And how can you accelerate execution in your company In Strategic Speed the authors provide the answers Start by understanding the barriers to execution Employees don't grasp where an initiative is going They don't adopt new behaviors They're not committed to working together to achieve results Most leaders try to speed things up by changing processes or installing new technologies But better processes and systems won't remove the barriers Instead you need to unleash three people factors clarity understanding the goal unity collaborating across work groups and agility adapting quickly The authors explain how to unleash these factors by exercising four leadership abilities Affirming strategies Ensuring everyone knows the destination and wants to go there Driving initiatives Accelerating projects called for by your strategy Managing climate Controlling what it feels like to work in your team Cultivating experience Harnessing employees knowledge and expertise Strategic Speed provides real world examples from companies as diverse as Tata Sky Thermo Fisher Scientific Ameriprise and Fender Guitars showing these practices in action And it's packed with tools and assessments for diagnosing where your execution efforts are in trouble and choosing specific actions for accelerating results in your firm The Political Economies of Media Dwayne Winseck, Dal Yong Jin, 2012-05-08 The contributors show that digital media are disrupting entire media industries but without erasing the past and insist that one media sector is not the same as the next As the title signals even in the age of convergence and remix culture different media continue to display their own distinctive political economies
