The Rational Peasant The Political Economy Of Rural Society In Vietnam

David Elliott

The Rational Peasant The Political Economy Of Rural Society In Vietnam:

The Rational Peasant Samuel L. Popkin, 1979-06-11 This provocative reinterpretation of Vietnamese history in particular and peasant society in general will be of wide interest to political scientists historians anthropologists sociologists development planners and Asian scholars

The Rational Peasant Samuel L. Popkin, 1979 Popkin develops a model of rational peasant behavior and shows how village procedures result from the self interested interactions of peasants This political economy view of peasant behavior stands in contrast to the model of a distinctive peasant moral economy in which the village community is primarily responsible for ensuring the welfare of its members

The Vietnamese Family in Change Pham Van Bich, 2013-10-11 Like most societies Vietnam has seen marked changes in family structures and dynamics this century For Vietnam however these changes have been especially radical After decades of French acculturation the 1940s brought sweeping economic changes and a move away from collectivism Perhaps because of Vietnam's long isolation from the late 1970s into the early 1990s very little has been written on the Vietnamese family This text provides an examination of the Vietnamese family focusing on two fundamental relationships husband wife and parent children within their wider social and historical context The author explores how and why marital partners are chosen individual's domains within the family reproduction and birth control son preference ancestor worship and the role of the state As such the study will be of interest not just to sociologists but also to those scholars looking to understand the current social transformation of Vietnam

The Vietnamese War David Elliott, 2016-04-15 A monumental work of research and analysis this is a history of the Vietnam War in a single province of the Mekong Delta over the period 1930 1975 More precisely it is a study of the Vietnamese dimension of the Vietnam War focusing on the revolutionary movement that became popularly known as the Viet Cong There are several distinctive features to this study 1 it provides an explanation for the paradox of why the revolutionary movement was so successful during the war but unable to meet the challenges of postwar developments 2 it challenges the dominant theme of contemporary political analysis which assumes that people are rational actors responding to events with careful calculations of self interest 3 it closely examines province level documentation that casts light on a number of important historical controversies about the war No other history of the Vietnam War has drawn on such a depth of documentation especially firsthand accounts that allow the Vietnamese participants to speak directly to us

The Uncensored War Daniel C. Hallin, 1989-04-14 Vietnam was America's most divisive and unsuccessful foreign war It was also the first to be televised and the first of the modern era fought without military censorship From the earliest days of the Kennedy Johnson escalation right up to the American withdrawal and even today the media's role in Vietnam has continued to be intensely controversial The Uncensored War gives a richly detailed account of what Americans read and watched about Vietnam Hallin draws on the complete body of the New York Times coverage from 1961 to 1965 a sample of hundreds of television reports from 1965-73 including television coverage filmed by the Defense Department in the early years of the war and interviews with many of the journalists who reported it to give a powerful critique of the conventional wisdom both conservative and liberal about the media and Vietnam Far from being a consistent adversary of government policy in Vietnam Hallin shows the media were closely tied to official perspectives throughout the war though divisions in the government itself and contradictions in its public relations policies caused every administration at certain times to lose its ability to manage the news effectively As for television it neither showed the literal horror of war nor did it play a leading role in the collapse of support it presented a highly idealized picture of the war in the early years and shifted toward a more critical view only after public unhappiness and elite divisions over the war were well advanced

War and Aftermath in Vietnam T. Louise Brown, 2021-12-27 This book first published in 1991 attempts to combine a broad understanding of the background to the conflict in Vietnamese and world history with detailed material on US military tactics and the failure of pacification There are chapters on the US presidential administrations of Johnson Kennedy and Nixon religion culture and society in North and South Vietnam and the nature of the People's Revolutionary War

Routledge Library Editions: Revolution in Vietnam Various, 2022-07-30 This 7 volume set of previously out of print titles examines both the war for liberation in Vietnam and its political and economic aftermath The economic reforms that began to transform Vietnam from a planned economy to a partially market one are focused on in particular as are the early days of revolutionary conflict

1 The Ethnography of Vietnam's Central Highlanders Oscar Salemink, 2019-10-18 This book looks at ethnographic discourses concerning the indigenous population of Vietnam's Central Highlands during periods of Christianization colonization war and socialist transformation and analyses these in their relation to tribal ethnic territorial governmental and gendered discourses Salemink's book is a timely contribution to anthropological knowledge as the ethnic minorities in Vietnam have again been the object of fierce academic debate This is a historically grounded post colonial critique relevant to theories of ethnicity and the history of anthropology and will be of interest to graduate students of anthropology and cultural studies as well as Vietnam studies Global Health Policy, Local Realities Linda M. Whiteford, Lenore Manderson, 2000 International health planners often design programmes based on the assumption that recipient nations share the same level playing field with regard to conceptions of health illness and at risk populations This volume analyzes why humanitarian projects fail to recognize ethnic identities The Vietnamese Experience in America Paul Rutledge, 1992

Social Revolutions in the Modern World Theda Skocpol, 1994-09-30 Theda Skocpol author of the award winning 1979 book States and Social Revolutions updates her arguments about social revolutions Origins of the Cold War Melvyn P. Leffler, 2005 This second edition brings the collection up to date including the newest research from the Communist side of the Cold War and the most recent debates on culture race and intelligence Global Feminisms Since 1945 Bonnie G. Smith, 2000 This is an innovative introduction to the issues of contemporary feminism with a truly global perspective It analyses the roots development and in some cases the conclusions of feminisms and how they have interacted The

Palgrave Handbook of the International Political Economy of Energy Thijs Van de Graaf, Benjamin K. Sovacool, Arunabha Ghosh, Florian Kern, Michael T. Klare, 2016-08-05 This Handbook is the first volume to analyse the International Political Economy the who gets what when and how of global energy Divided into five sections it features 28 contributions that deal with energy institutions trade transitions conflict and justice The chapters span a wide range of energy technologies and markets including oil and gas biofuels carbon capture and storage nuclear and electricity and it cuts across the domestic international divide Long standing issues in the IPE of energy such as the role of OPEC and the resource curse are combined with emerging issues such as fossil fuel subsidies and carbon markets IPE perspectives are interwoven with insights from studies on governance transitions security and political ecology The Handbook serves as a potent reminder that energy systems are as inherently political and economic as they are technical or technological and demonstrates that the field of IPE has much to offer to studies of the changing world of energy Bibliographie

Internationale de Sociologie 1980, 1982 Each Bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published during the year They are arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and geographic location STATE POWER, AGRARIAN POLICIES AND PEASANT WELFARE DAN MOU, 2014 This book identifies and explains the politico historical forces that underlie agrarian policies in Nigeria It also examines the impacts of these policies on different social classes and groups especially the peasantry The book focuses specifically on the Agricultural Marketing and Commodity Boards in Nigeria from 1945 1985 These boards are examined as state agencies and actions that have direct implications for different classes and groups The book reveals that the various social classes and groups contested every step of the agrarian policies right from their agenda setting to actual implementation Consequently the contestations affected drastically the policies and outcomes in such a way that the original goals were lost I am very impressed with its theoretical scope command of extant literature and methodological sophistication Dr Mou s book should be of immense interest to a broad range of scholars from political theorists to political economists as well as African area specialists Professor Crawford Young Department of Political Science University of Wisconsin Madison USA Dr Dan Mou Thanks for contributing to knowledge Your book is highly expository and full of discoveries We are proud of you S A Raofu Chairman Committee of Deans AOCOE Lagos Nigeria Tradition, Revolution, and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village, 1925-2006 Hy Van Luong, 2010-08-15 Tradition Revolution and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village examines both continuity and change over eight decades in a small rural village deep in the North Vietnamese countryside Son Duong a community near the Red River experienced firsthand the ravages of French colonialism and the American war as well as the socialist revolution and Vietnam's recent reintegration into the global market economy In this revised and expanded edition of his 1992 book Revolution in the Village Hy V Luong draws on newly available archival documents in Hanoi narratives by villagers and three field seasons from the late 1980s to 2006 He situates his finely drawn village portrait within the historical framework of the Vietnamese revolution and the recent reforms in Vietnam The richness of the oral testimony of surviving villagers enables the author to follow them throughout political and economic upheavals compiling a wealth of original data as they actively restructure their daily lives In his analysis of the implications of these data for theoretical models of agrarian transformation Luong argues that local traditions have played a major role in shaping villagers' responses to colonialism socialist policies and the global market economy His work spanning eight decades of sociocultural change will interest students and scholars of the Vietnamese revolution agrarian politics peasant societies French colonialism and socialist transformation Competing for Land, Mangroves and Marine Resources in Coastal Vietnam Hue Le, 2021-08-30 This book presents a historical and ethnographic study of changing mangrove management in northern Vietnam over the past 100 years grounded in a case study in the Red River Delta in northern Vietnam The book shows that three primary socio-economic dynamics have affected mangroves enclosure movements that have restricted access by different user communities over time such as the exclusion of women changing valuation of mangroves and their products and services and social and class differentiation caused by privatization of once common resources The result of these pressures have been erosions of norms rules and collective action to protect and nurture mangroves leading to widespread loss of coastal forests Sustainable mangrove management will require attention to these dynamics to address current day land conflicts The book will be of interest to policy makers practitioners and academics and students in forest policy management and governance rural livelihoods and globalization and agrarian change
