House of Horrors Agnieszka Kotwasińska, 2023-06-15 This is a study of tumultuous transformations of kinship and intimate relationships in American horror fiction over the last three decades Twelve contemporary novels by ten women writers and two whose work has been identified as women s fiction are grouped into four main thematic clusters haunted houses monsters vampires and hauntings but it is social scripts and concerns linked directly to intimacy and family life that structure the entire volume By drawing attention to how the most intimate of all social relationships the family supports and replicates social hierarchies exclusions and struggles for dominance the book problematises the source of horror The consideration of horror narratives through the lens of familial intimacies makes it possible to rethink genre boundaries to question the efficacy of certain genre tropes and to consider the contribution of such diverse authors as Kathe Koja Tananarive Due Gwendolyn Kiste Elizabeth Engstrom Sara Gran and Caitlín R Kiernan

Margaret Oliphant's Curative Gothic Literature Katerina García-Walsh, 2025-11-06 Prolific Scottish novelist Margaret Oliphant 1828-1897 remembered chiefly for her realist fiction and biting literary criticism of contemporary authors also wrote nineteen supernatural tales This monograph offers a comprehensive exploration of Oliphant's Gothic literature in the light of her religious beliefs cultural context and experiences of death and mourning as she survived her husband and all six of her children Oliphant's stories set in the afterlife depict the dead as inhabiting a new existence characterised by spiritual growth while her tales set on earth attempt contact between the mortal and immortal planes García-Walsh illustrates Oliphant's unique theological conception of afterliving which ultimately seeks to eradicate the divide between the living and their deceased loved ones reimagining death as a liminal passage towards God and divine self development This book thus suggests a new direction for Gothic studies by showing how Oliphant's supernatural fiction provided a means of curative writing transforming the traumatic reality of death into a source of hope The volume is suited for students researchers and academics in the disciplines of literature and history particularly the fields of nineteenth century studies Victorian studies and Gothic studies with an interest in women s writing theology and mental health trauma studies
