The School Library Manager 5th Edition Library And Information Science Text:

The School Library Media Center Emanuel T. Prostan, Joyce Prostan, 1999-02-15 With a focus on the successful management of the school library media center as a system the new edition of this authoritative work addresses and integrates the many trends and developments of the past decade It explores the impact of global forces and the school district on the development and operation of the media center and examines the library's programmatic activities within the context of its goals The book also addresses the nature quality and quantity of resources available to support programmatic endeavors personnel media technology facilities and funds Management skills are emphasized throughout the text The School Library Manager Blanche Woolls, Sharon Coatney, 2017-11-27 This sixth edition of Library Unlimited's classic school library management text describes new approaches to management and addresses the realities that school librarians face in today's quickly evolving information based world In recent years nearly all school libraries and school librarians have been targeted for having their funding or staffing cut as a result of reductions in school budgets How does a newly graduated LIS professional prepare for a career in this volatile environment How do established librarians and administrators prove their value and necessity to decision makers This freshly updated edition of The School Library Manager is an invaluable textbook that leads readers through the many essential management tasks and skills required to administer the successful school library program and beyond It promotes the leadership role of the school librarian in the school and addresses the need for school librarians to provide students with equal access to information The information presented will not only enable librarians to keep their jobs but also supply specific guidance and inspiration that gives readers the ability to make their positions and libraries undeniably relevant and valuable and to ensure a path of upward mobility in their LIS careers

Resources in Education, 1999-04 The School Library Media Manager Blanche Woolls, 1994 Placing the school library media program in the context of global change and the contemporary educational environment this work gives practicing media specialists library students and anyone considering a career as a media specialist a complete overview of the profession It begins with available education programs guidelines for selecting a position and expectations for the first week in a new school Following chapters cover all aspects of management including staff both professional and clerical facility collection budget marketing the program evaluation cooperation networking and planning for the future Potential leadership opportunities and responsibilities for new technologies are also discussed A practical introduction to the field this work serves well both as a text and a professional resource Library and Information Center Management Robert D. Stueart, Barbara B. Moran, 1998 Planning organising staffing budgeting and evaluating EL-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003, 2003 The School Library Manager Blanche Woolls, Ann Carlson Weeks, Sharon Coatney, 2014 This very readable text is updated to encompass the new role of school librarians in managing the digital world in libraries This textbook is simply the ideal guide for preservice school librarians and those new to the field After a brief introduction that describes the history of the role of the school librarian the book covers how to choose a credential program identify the requirements for working in each of the 50 states and avoid the pitfalls of looking for and choosing a job The text even supplies a first week survival guide for excelling in that new position from the beginning covering the challenges of successfully managing collections facilities personnel and technology Critical subject matter such as librarian teacher collaboration curriculum integration proposal writing tackling leadership and the role of a school librarian in the legislative process are addressed as well This latest version of this established go to text provides updated coverage of student learning assessment supplies new information on managing digital and virtual libraries and collections as well as social media in the library media center and supplies careful attention to key strategies to meet AASL and Common Core standards Presents up to date information and thorough revisions of a well established and popular textbook Highlights the teaching role of today s school librarian Emphasizes the newest AASL standards the Common Core standards and the management of 21st century digital and virtual libraries and collections Supplies comprehensive coverage of current issues in school library media center administration Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Daniel N. Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, David P. Miller, 2015-09-29

A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn t presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA s Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter

The Organization of Information Daniel N. Joudrey, 2025-09-04 Organizing information is at the heart of the information professions and the fifth edition of The Organization of Information is a key resource for anyone seeking up to date guidance For millennia information organization has been central to the functioning of libraries and other information institutions The fifth edition of The Organization of Information provides a timely detailed introduction to organizing in a variety of information contexts including library cataloging archival description indexing museum registration metadata creation for digital collections organizing on the web linked data and the development of the Semantic Web

Examining how and why information professionals organize information in contemporary libraries archives museums and in a variety of online settings expert Daniel N Joudrey addresses the types of retrieval tools used throughout information organizations the functionality of information systems and the role and effect of technology on information organization A discussion of encoding follows explaining the basics of the MARC format several XML schemas and the developing BIBFRAME standard A section on the principles and functionality of metadata covers metadata types metadata characteristics and tools used to manage metadata projects A timely new chapter on conceptual models and frameworks articulates the visions behind the Library Reference Model LRM Records in Contexts RiC and the Semantic Web including a discussion of RDF as its underlying structural model Finally the latter portion of the book describes practices related to the creation of descriptive metadata Providing a thorough overview of the field s major issues challenges and standards The Organization of Information is an essential resource for students in library and information science programs as well as for established professionals who want to refresh their knowledge of the latest developments in the field

Young Adult Literature in Action Rose Brock, 2019-06-14 Taking a genre approach this overview of young adult literature shows new librarians and library science students the criteria to use for selecting quality books including recommended titles This third edition of Young Adult Literature in Action draws on the success of the previous two editions authored by Rosemary Chance updating and expanding on them to meet the needs of today s librarians and library science students It includes a new focus on diverse books LGBTQ selections the role of book formats and the relevance of librarians serving teen populations and is an ideal resource for teaching young adult literature courses Organized by major genre divisions this easy to use book includes new information on timely topics such as audio and e books accessible books and graphic novels Each chapter includes revised and updated information on collaborative activities featured books special topics and programs selected awards and celebrations historical connections recommended resources issues for discussion author comments and assignment suggestions Further updates include citations of exemplary young adult books and award winners references websites and a bibliography
