The Guantanamo Files The Stories Of The 774 Detainees In Americas Illegal Prison:

The Guantanamo Files Andy Worthington, 2007-10-20 In 2006 four years after the illegal prison in Guant namo Bay opened the Pentagon finally released the names of the 773 men held there as well as 7 000 pages of transcripts from tribunals assessing their status as enemy combatants Andy Worthington is the only person to have analysed every page of these transcripts and this book reveals the stories of all those imprisoned in Guantanamo Deprived of the safeguards of the Geneva Conventions and for the most part sold to the Americans by their allies in Afghanistan and Pakistan the detainees have struggled for five years to have their stories heard Looking in detail at the circumstances of their capture and at the coercive interrogations and unsubstantiated allegations that have been used to justify their detention Stories of torture in Afghanistan and Guantanamo are uncovered as well as new information about the process of extraordinary rendition that underpins the US administration s war on terror Who will speak for the 773 men who have been held in Guantanamo This passionate and brilliantly detailed book brings their stories to the world for the first time Kill Boxes: Facing the Legacy of US-Sponsored Torture, Indefinite Detention, and Drone Warfare Richard Falk, Elisabeth Weber, 2017 Kill Boxes addresses the legacy of US sponsored torture indefinite detention and drone warfare by deciphering the shocks of recognition that humanistic and artistic responses to violence bring to consciousness if readers and viewers have eyes to face them Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the hooded man from Abu Ghraib became iconic subsequent chapters take up less culturally visible scenes of massive violations of human rights to bring us face to face with these shocks and the forms of recognition that they enable and disavow We are addressed in the photo of the hooded man all the more so as he was brutally prevented in our name from returning the camera s and thus our gaze We are addressed in the screams that turn a person tortured in our name into howling flesh We are addressed in poems written in the Guant namo Prison camp however much American authorities try to censor them in our name We are addressed by the victims of the US drone wars however little American citizens may have heard the names of the places obliterated by the bombs for which their taxes pay And we know that we are addressed in spite of a number of strategies of brutal refusal of heeding those calls Providing intensive readings of philosophical texts by Jean Am ry Jacques Derrida and Christian Thomasius with poetic texts by Franz Kafka Paul Muldoon and the poet detainees of Guant namo Bay Prison Camp and with artistic creations by Sallah Edine Sallat the American artist collective Forkscrew and an international artist collective from Pakistan France and the US Kill Boxes demonstrates the complexity of humanistic responses to crimes committed in the name of national security The conscious or unconscious knowledge that we are addressed by the victims of these crimes is a critical factor in discussions on torture on indefinite detention without trial as practiced in Guant namo and in debates on the strategies to circumvent the latter altogether as practiced in drone warfare and its extrajudicial assassination program The volume concludes with an Afterword by Richard Falk States of Emergency Russ Castronovo, Susan Gillman, 2010-05 The contributors to this volume argue that for too long inclusiveness has substituted for methodology in American studies scholarship The ten original essays collected here call for a robust comparativism that is attuned theoretically to questions of both space and time States of Emergency asks readers to engage in a thought experiment imagi

Fool's Errand Scott Horton, 2017 After more than a decade and a half the results are in The U S government has been unable to achieve its goals in Afghanistan Even worse what state it has been able to achieve there is completely unsustainable and certain to fall apart when the occupation is finally called off and America does come home The politicians generals and intelligence officers behind this unending catastrophe who always promise they can fix these problems with just a little bit more time money and military force have lost all credibility The truth is America's Afghan war is an irredeemable disaster It was meant to be a trap in the first place America is not only failing to defeat its enemies but is destroying itself just as Osama bin Laden and al Qaeda always intended Fool's Errand is an attempt to present the American people with the reality of this forgotten war because only the ignorance of pride and refusal to admit they have been deceived can prevent Americans from realizing they have supported a policy that is destructive to the United States as well as Afghanistan from Introduction

The Palgrave Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture Marcus Harmes, Meredith Harmes, Barbara Harmes, 2020-02-03 The Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture will be an essential reference point providing international coverage and thematic richness The chapters examine the real and imagined spaces of the prison and perhaps more importantly dwell in the uncertain space between them The modern fixation with seeing inside prison from the outside has prompted a proliferation of media visions of incarceration from high minded and worthy to voyeuristic and unrealistic In this handbook the editors bring together a huge breadth of disparate issues including women in prison the view from inside prisons as a source of entertainment the real worlds of prison and issues of race and gender The handbook will inform students and lecturers of media film popular culture gender and cultural studies as well as scholars of criminology and justice

A New No-Man's-Land Esther Whitfield, 2024-07-15 Guant namo sits at the center of two of the most vexing issues of US policy of the past century relations with Cuba and the Global War on Terror It is a contested extralegal space In A New No Man s Land Esther Whitfield explores a multilingual archive of materials produced both at the US naval base and in neighboring Cuban communities and proposes an understanding of Guant namo as a coherent borderland region where experiences of isolation are opportunities to find common ground She analyzes poetry art memoirs and documentary films produced on both sides of the border Authors and artists include prisoners guards linguists chaplains lawyers and journalists as well as Cuban artists and dissidents Their work reveals surprising similarities limited access to power and self representation mobility restricted by geography if not captivity and immersion in political languages that have ascribed them rigid roles Read together the work of these disparate communities traces networks that extend among individuals in the Guant namo region inward to Cuba and outward to the Caribbean the Americas Europe and the Middle East
