Inkbound Realms: Traversing the Landscapes of English Literature 2025

ANINDRA KUMAR BISWAS, DR. APARAJITA SHUKLA, DR NEELAM SHUKLA, DR. REVANT GAUTAM, PREFACE Literature has always been one of humanity s most enduring ways of making sense of the world From the rhythm of ancient oral storytelling to the fluid prose of contemporary novels the written word carries with it the weight of history memory and imagination Inkbound Realms Traversing the Landscapes of English Literature was conceived as an attempt to bring these diverse voices together in one journey illuminating the traditions transformations and tensions that have shaped English literature across the centuries This book is not meant to be an encyclopaedic record nor a rigid survey of authors and dates Instead it aims to capture the living spirit of literature the way it reflects the concerns of its age while also transcending them Each chapter is crafted to situate texts within their cultural and historical contexts while offering readers concrete examples and case studies that bring the material to life Whether one encounters Chaucer s humour Shakespeare s depth Dickens s social vision or Woolf s experimental prose the intention is to show how these works remain relevant today The work is also guided by an inclusive spirit English literature is no longer the sole property of Britain it is a global phenomenon shaped by writers from Asia Africa the Americas and beyond This book embraces that plurality tracing how English has become a shared language of storytelling capable of expressing local identities while also speaking to universal human experiences I hope that students will find in these chapters a helpful companion to their studies that scholars will appreciate the synthesis of tradition and contemporary insight and that general readers will discover or rediscover the joy of reading across ages and genres More than anything my aspiration is that this book encourages readers to see literature not as a closed canon but as a set of open landscapes realms bound in ink yet constantly expanding through new voices technologies and cultural encounters As you embark on this journey through the inkbound realms may you not only gain knowledge of English literature but also a renewed sense of its beauty power and capacity to connect us across time and place Authors Anindra Kumar Biswas Dr Aparajita Shukla Dr Neelam Shukla Dr Revant Gautam

The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture Lydia R. Cooper, 2021-12-26 Recently the U S has seen a rise in misogynistic and race based violence perpetrated by men expressing a sense of grievance from incels to alt right activists Grounding sociological historical political and economic analyses of masculinity through the lens of cultural narratives in many forms and expressions The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture suggests that how we examine the stories that shape us in turn shapes our understanding of our current reality and gives us language for imagining better futures Masculinity is more than a description of traits associated with particular performances of gender It is more than a study of gender and social power It is an examination of the ways in which gender affects our capacity to engage ethically with each other in complex human societies This volume offers essays from a range of established global experts in American masculinity as well as new and upcoming scholars in order to explore not just what masculinity once meant has come to mean and may mean in the future in the U S it also articulates what is at stake with our conceptions of masculinity Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo, Simon Stern, 2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct

Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth s ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn The Anthropocene Working Group and the Global Debate Around a New Geological Epoch Martin Bohle, Boris Holzer, Leslie Sklair, Fabienne Will, 2025-03-03 This book examines the role of the Anthropocene Working Group AWG in public and scholarly discussions of the meaning of the Anthropocene proposal The status of the Anthropocene both as a geoscientific concept and as a cultural concept becoming increasingly familiar in the public sphere has been highly controversial While geoscientists focus on possible geological markers and periodisation the social sciences environmental humanities and creative arts have taken up the Anthropocene as a cultural concept to make sense of the planetary environmental crisis and contemporary society This book documents intra inter and transdisciplinary debates particularly although not limited to how different scholarly disciplines have responded to the Anthropocene proposal The authors analyse how the AWG has become the focal point of a debate that straddles the boundaries between academic disciplines and public perceptions of science The AWG thus serves as a case of the globalisation of science in terms of the global interconnectedness of scientific disciplines and the cultural significance of the Anthropocene proposal Postfeminist Film & Literary Aesthetics Alyce Corbett, 2025-05-23 Postfeminist Film Literary Aesthetics In Search of the Female Gaze represents a novel and comprehensive study of the aesthetic and affective textual innovations of women in the 21st century from a postfeminist perspective This book both defines and helps shape the contours of four fast growing critically and commercially popular modes millennial film and fiction metamodernism an anti narrative and decorative realm named here as still life and new cli fi in which there is no clear male equivalent or in which women s work can be read as a distinct aesthetic force As the textual constellation of now is being mapped and its key texts being canonised this book contributes to the current recentring of aesthetic taste that is occurring in literature film and surrounding criticism making greater space for the appreciation of female aesthetics and for future inquiries in this field

Heroines of the Postmodern and their Worlds in Contemporary Historical Fiction Alicja Bemben, Michael Joseph, 2025-09-29 This volume focuses on historical fiction written by and for women approximately in the last 30 years and across the entire globe It comprises three parts Part 1 draws on the theme of the inner life and experiences of the female historical figure Part 2 is concerned with genre bending that fuels the construction of the vast majority of story worlds within the genre and Part 3 with the idea of unusual angles that the historical fiction storytelling employs

Climate Fiction: Ecological Dimensions Ananya Mukherjee, Tanmoy Baghira, 2025-06-15 Climate Fiction Ecological Dimensions offers an introspective gaze into intersections of literature film and ecology to recognise how fiction mediates the Anthropocene Employing postcolonial and intersectional lenses this volume will interrogate the historical legacies of colonialism that have intensified ecological degradation The contributors in this volume not only observe the Anthropocene as a narrative but also assess its literary conventions to highlight its inherently fictional framework that shape its representation in literature This volume will engage with the current developments in this field and will try to diversify various other issues

The Real Aftermath: How COVID-19 Changed the Way Science Fiction is Conceived, Read, and Interpreted Riccardo Retez, 2025-02-18 The Real Aftermath How COVID 19 Changed the Way Science Fiction is Conceived Read and Interpreted offers a profound exploration of how the COVID 19 pandemic has redefined the boundaries of speculative fiction Through contributions from scholars in literature media and cultural studies this volume examines the pandemic s deep impact on science fiction as a genre and cultural phenomenon The book navigates the thematic stylistic and ideological shifts that have emerged in response to the global health crisis revealing how science fiction has become a mirror of contemporary societal anxieties from isolation and contagion to resilience and dystopia Drawing from a rich array of media including literature film and video games The Real Aftermath delves into the portrayal of existential threats and explores how speculative narratives provide frameworks for imagining future crises and solutions By addressing both cultural and technological disruptions the book positions itself within the growing body of critical literature on the intersection between global crises and fiction offering original insights into the transformative power of science fiction in post pandemic society This volume is an essential resource for scholars and students in literature science fiction studies media and cultural analysis It can serve as a reference for academic research a
