The Ghost in the Image Cecilia Sayad, 2021 Our century has seen the proliferation of reality shows devoted to ghost hunts documentaries on hauntings and horror films presented as found footage The horror genre is no longer exclusive to fiction and its narratives actively engage us in web forums experiential viewing videogames and creepypasta These participative modes of relating to the occult alongside the impulse to seek proof of either its existence or fabrication have transformed the production and consumption of horror stories The Ghost in the Image offers a new take on the place that supernatural phenomena occupy in everyday life arguing that the relationship between the horror genre and reality is more intimate than we like to think Through a revisionist and transmedial approach to horror this book investigates our expectations about the ability of photography and film to work as evidence A historical examination of technology's role in at once showing and forging truths invites questions about our investment in its powers Behind our obsession with documenting everyday life lies the hope that our cameras will reveal something extraordinary The obsessive search for ghosts in the image however shows that the desire to find them is matched by the pleasure of calling a hoax

Inclusive Young Adult Fiction Melanie Ramdarshan Bold, 2019-01-04 This book examines diversity or the lack thereof in young adult fiction YA publishing It focuses on cultural hegemony in the United Kingdom and explores how literary culture aimed at young adults reproduces and perpetuates racial and ethnic cultural hierarchies Diversity is described by the We Need Diverse Books project as all diverse experiences including but not limited to LGBTQIA Native people of color gender diversity people with disabilities and ethnic cultural and religious minorities This study focuses on people of colour While previous studies have looked at the representation of ethnic minorities in books for children and young adults this book examines the experiences of own voice cultural producers that create a counter narrative Specifically this book will investigate the output and experiences of British young adult fiction authors of colour BAME authors published in the UK during the period 2006 2016 drawing upon semi structured interviews with a sample of authors World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb), 2001

Emerging Trends in Global Health Gurinder Shahi, Bethi Luu, 2008-12-19 This book is an edited compilation of topical review essays addressing emerging issues concerns and opportunities in global health Gender Warriors U. Melissa Anyiwo, Amanda Hobson, 2019-01-14 Gender Warriors Reading Contemporary Urban Fantasy offers classroom ready original essays outlining contemporary debates about sexual objectification and gender norms in urban fantasy and examining how those cultural categories are reinforced and unraveled The essays explore the foundations and evolutions of urban fantasy and presentations of gendered identities in a wide variety of sources focusing not only on popular examples such as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Underworld but also on less studied works for instance Penny Dreadful and Anita Blake The authors address the sociocultural institutions that bind gender to the body and shape our views of gendered norms inviting students of all experience levels to engage in interdisciplinary conversations about both theoretical and embodied constructions of gender and the production of genre and generic conventions The text unpacks cultural norms of gender and addresses issues of identity construction within an endlessly evolving genre This collection demonstrates the way that representations of gender and the kick ass female urban fantasy warrior have upended and reinforced a broad range of expectations and tropes making it a fascinating text for any course such as first year studies literature film gender studies sociology cultural studies history and more
