Swinging the Maelstrom Malcolm Lowry, 2013-11-28 Swinging the Maelstrom is the story of a musician enduring existence in the Bellevue psychiatric hospital in New York Written during his happiest and most fruitful years this novella reveals the deep healing influence that the idyllic retreat at Dollarton had on Lowry This long overdue scholarly edition will allow scholars to engage in a genetic study of the text and reconstruct step by step the creative process that developed from a rather pessimistic and misanthropic vision of the world as a madhouse The Last Address 1936 via the apocalyptic metaphors of a world on the brink of Armageddon The Last Address 1939 to a world that in spite of all its troubles leaves room for self irony and humanistic concern Swinging the Maelstrom 1942 1944 This book is published in English

The 1940 Under the Volcano Malcolm Lowry, 2015-10-22 The 1940 Under the Volcano hidden for too long in the shadows of Lowry's 1947 masterpiece differs from the latter in significant ways It is a bridge between Lowry's 1930s fiction especially In Ballast to the White Sea and the 1947 Under the Volcano itself Joining the recently published Swinging the Maelstrom and In Ballast to the White Sea The 1940 Under the Volcano takes its rightful place as part of Lowry's exciting 1930s early 40s trilogy Scholars have only recently begun to pay systematic attention to convergences and divergences between this earlier work and the 1947 version Miguel Mota and Paul Tiessen's insightful introduction together with extensive annotations by Chris Ackerley and David Large reveal the depth and breadth of Lowry's complex vision for his work This critical edition fleshes out our sense of the enormous achievement by this twentieth century modernist Published in English Making Canada New Dean Irvine, Vanessa Lent, Bart

Vautour, 2017-01-01 An examination of the connections between modernist writers and editorial activities Making Canada New draws links among new and old media collaborative labour emergent scholars and scholarships and digital modernisms In doing so the collection reveals that renovating modernisms does not need to depend on the fabrication of completely new modes of scholarship Rather it is the repurposing of already existing practices and combining them with others whether old or new print or digital that instigates a process of continuous renewal Critical to this process of renewal is the intermingling of print and digital research methods and the coordination of more popular modes of literary scholarship with less frequented ones such as bibliography textual studies and editing Making Canada New tracks the editorial renovation of modernism as a digital phenomenon while speaking to the continued production of print editions Joyce/Lowry Patrick A. McCarthy, Paul Tiessen, 2021-10-21 While James Joyce was a central figure of high modernism Malcom Lowry spoke for the next generation of modernist writers and despite his denials was almost certainly influenced by Joyce Wherever the truth lies there are correspondences and differences to be explored between Joyce and Lowry that are far more interesting than the question of direct influence Despite numerous differences their works have much in common verbal richness experimentation with narrative structure and perspective a fascination with cultural and historical forces as well as with the process of artistic creation and the inclusion of artist figures who are in varying degrees ironic self portrayals The contributors to Joyce Lowry examine the relationship of these two expatriate writers both to each other and to broader issues in the study of literary modernism and its aftermath This collection embraces a variety of approaches The volume begins with a consideration of Joyce and Lowry as practitioners of Expressionist art and concludes with an essay on John Huston's cinematic interpretation of works by both writers In between are explorations of nationalism anti-Semitism syphilis mental illness and authorial design

The God of Gods: A Canadian Play Carroll Aikins, 2016-04-14 Carroll Aikins's play The God of Gods 1919 has been out of print since its first and only edition in 1927 This critical edition not only revives the work for readers and scholars alike it also provides historical context for Aikins's often overlooked contributions to theatre in the 1920s and presents research on the different staging techniques in the play's productions Much of the play's historical significance lies in Aikins's vital role in Canadian theatre as director of the Home Theatre in British Columbia 1920-22 and artistic director of Toronto's Hart House Theatre 1927-29 Wright reveals The God of Gods as a modernist Canadian work with overt influences from European and American modernisms Aikins's work has been compared to European modernists Gordon Craig Adolphe Appia and Jacques Copeau Importantly he was also intimately connected with modernist Canadian artists and the Group of Seven who painted the scenery for Hart House Theatre The God of Gods contributes to current studies of theatrical modernism by exposing the primitivist aesthetics and theosophical beliefs promoted by some of Canada's art circles at the turn of the twentieth century Whereas Aikins is clearly progressive in his political critique of materialism and organized religion he presents a conservative dramatization of the noble savage as hero The critical introduction examines how The God of Gods engages with Nietzschean and theosophical philosophies in order to dramatize an Aboriginal lover artist figure that critiques religious idols materialism and violence Ultimately The God of Gods offers a look into how English and Canadian theatre audiences responded to primitivism theatrical modernism and theosophical tenets during the 1920s
