Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region, Volume I Ashraf Mishrif, Yousuf Al Balushi, 2017-12-27 This volume focuses on the role of the private sector in diversifying the economics of Gulf countries in the post petrodollar era when fluctuating and declining oil prices are negatively impacting national expenditures It explores current policies of countries in the Gulf Cooperation Council and their efforts to shift their economies away from heavy dependence on hydrocarbons The structural changes will create favorable conditions for the private sector to flourish shift production dependence from public to private sector and allow for more efficient resource allocation Such changes will also allow local banks to provide financial support to small and medium enterprises boost entrepreneurship for job creation and strengthen organizational structure and efficiency This is the first volume in Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region

New Perspectives on the War Film Clémentine Tholas, Janis L. Goldie, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, 2019-09-14 New Perspectives on the War Film addresses the gap in the representation of many forgotten faces of war in mainstream movies and global mass media The authors concentrate on the untold narratives of those who fought in combat and were affected by its brutal consequences Chapters discuss the historically under represented stories of individuals including women African American and Indigenous Soldiers Issues of homosexuality and gender relations in the military colonial subjects and child soldiers as well as the changing nature of war via terrorism and bioterrorism are closely analyzed The contributors demonstrate how these viewpoints have been consistently ignored in mainstream blockbuster war sagas and strive to re-integrate these lost perspectives into current and future narratives

Macprudential Banking Supervision & Monetary Policy Luca Amorello, 2018-08-27 The European experience suggests that the efforts made to achieve an efficient trade off between monetary policy and prudential supervision ultimately failed The severity of the global crisis have pushed central banks to explore innovative tools within or beyond their statutory constraints capable of restoring the smooth functioning of the financial cycle including setting macroprudential policy instruments in the regulatory toolkit But macroprudential and monetary policies by sharing multiple transmission channels may interact and conflict with each other Such conflicts may represent not only an economic challenge in the pursuit of price and financial stability but also a legal uncertainty characterizing the regulatory developments of the EU macroprudential and monetary frameworks In analyzing the legal interaction between the two frameworks in the EU this book seeks to provide evidence of the inconsistencies associated with the structural separation of macroprudential and monetary frameworks shedding light upon the legal instruments that could reconcile any potential policy inconsistency
