Black Church Chronicles, Vol. 1 Watchman B.D. Dale, 2024-10-14 Black Church Chronicles The Hireling Hustler is a thought provoking critique of the modern Black Church leadership written by Senior Pastor Watchman B D Dale In this first volume of a six part series Dale exposes the damaging influence of corrupt African American pastors whom Jesus Christ referred to as hirelings individuals who have abandoned their spiritual responsibilities in pursuit of personal power prestige and position Drawing solely on biblical doctrine rather than denominational orthodoxy Dale critiques both the uncalled and unanointed leaders as well as those genuinely called for abandoning biblical principles and exploiting their congregations in search of praise that belongs only to the Lord God This devotional style book also sheds light on how the Black Church's integrity has been compromised by the toxic hey doc culture eroding its spiritual impact on those most in need of an encounter with Jesus Dale unpacks how false doctrines akin to the leaven of the Pharisees have crippled the Black Church's effectiveness and weakened its witness Through clear concise and powerful teaching Dale addresses the deceptive practices of black pulpit elitism the neglect of righteous judgment and the misinterpretation of touch not God's anointed as a blanket command He contrasts these errors with what Scripture truly says offering much needed correction to what has often been inaccurately preached in African American churches

L'aventure est à l'intérieur mon ami Forced Marriage Aisha Gill, Sundari Anitha, 2012-09-13 Forced Marriage Introducing a social justice and human rights perspective brings together leading practitioners and researchers from the disciplines of criminology sociology and law Together the contributors provide an international multi disciplinary perspective that offers a compelling alternative to prevailing conceptualisations of the problem of forced marriage The volume examines advances in theoretical debates analyses existing research and presents new evidence that challenges the cultural essentialism that often characterises efforts to explain and even justify this violation of women's rights. By locating forced marriage within broader debates on violence against women, social justice and human rights, the authors offer an intersectional perspective that can be used to inform both theory and practical efforts to address violence against diverse groups of women. This unique book, which is informed by practitioner insights and academic research, is essential reading for practitioners and students of sociology, criminology, gender studies and law.

Interrogating Models of Diversity within a Multicultural Environment Michael Tonderai Kariwo, Neda Asadi, Chouaib El Bouhali, 2019-05-28. Discussing common understanding of the concepts of multiculturalism, diversity and inclusion, this volume critically examines the interpretation and praxis of diversity and inclusion in relation to marginalized populations from women, sexual minorities, minority newcomers and aboriginal communities. The contributors collected here present well-grounded epistemological, theoretical and methodological bases from which to account at least in part for the processes and dynamics shaping the relationship between diversity and inclusion on the one hand and policy and practice on the other. Arising from research derived in part from community work with minorities in North America, particularly Canada, this volume examines common barriers to full minority integration with important implications for inclusion efforts around the globe.

Consent in International Arbitration Andrea M. Steingruber, 2012-03-15. Examining the notion, nature and extent of consent in both commercial arbitration and investment arbitration, this book provides practitioners and academics with a thorough case-related analysis of an issue which raises many questions. Whilst considering the evolution of arbitration and its consensual nature, enlargement of the parties' freedom to consent to arbitration and development from commercial arbitration to investment arbitration, it addresses important theoretical questions to offer practical solutions. These include how consent to arbitrate is expressed and when mutual consent to arbitration is reached, which law shall govern the arbitration agreement or more particularly consent as an element of the substantive validity of it and conversely according to which law will a possible lack of consent be judged, how consent should be interpreted, which relationship exists between consent as part of the substantive validity of an arbitration agreement and its formal validity, which if any are the implied terms when consenting to arbitration, how consent to arbitrate influences procedural aspects, counterclaims, joinder, consolidation and which solutions adopted by treaties, national laws or arbitration rules are or would be the most respectful of parties' consent in this respect, what in investment arbitration is the relationship between consent and most-favoured-nation clauses or the influence of umbrella clauses. The book includes original arguments and puts forward new suggestions with regard to the changeable consensual character of arbitration. It also provides a particular focus on problems that frequently arise in practice of international arbitration, for example issues
