Narrative Art & Women in the Gospels and Acts David Malick,2018-06-05 David Malick applies the hermeneutics of narrative analysis to select passages involving women in the Gospels of Mark Luke John and in the Book of Acts At times the scope of this analysis extends beyond heightened understanding of how authors presented women as significant characters and even foils to men in the narratives The use of duality and balance in the narratives of Zacharias and Mary Nicodemus and the Samaritan Woman and Aeneas Tabatha and Cornelius focus on what the author is doing with what he is saying The use of intercalations or sandwich stories brings about heightened meaning when the stories of Jesus mother and the religious leaders or Jairus and the woman with a hemorrhage or Judas and the woman who anoints Jesus for his burial are read together in Mark A first and subsequent reading of the healing of Simon s mother in law in Mark provides the reader with the first picture of true discipleship The literary technique of a sign sermon shows logical unity to what might be considered separate units in Mark and Acts

She Who Loved Much Kevin James Kalish,2022-09-06 This sharply honed and well constructed work brings to the fore and explores the New Testament story regarding the woman who entered a house where Jesus was dining and anointed him with precious oil shortly before His Passion and Crucifixion The author unveils the intricate nature of the tradition of the Church that gives the woman a voice and elucidates her backstory through its liturgical poetry oratory and other writings Scholarly consideration is given to all these sources in addressing questions such as Who was this woman Where did she come from How did she acquire the precious oil How did she enter into the house of Simon uninvited How did she perceive her own bold actions The reader will learn that in the liturgical tradition of the Orthodox Church as found in the hymnology of Holy Week this sinful woman is shown to be an example of repentance and unconstrained love The intricate nature of the hymns and homilies of the Orthodox Church give greater scope and application to the biblical record primarily in Greek and Syriac manuscripts with particular attention given to the former texts too often overshadowed by the latter The author shares previously inaccessible texts of late antiquity such as homilies by Amphilochius of Iconium and Ephrem Graecus found here in English for the first time This in depth and readable study will engage those who encounter the story of the sinful woman in the living tradition of worship within the Orthodox Church together with those who have encountered this story in Scripture or in the course of their academic studies
