The New Hollywood The New Hollywood:

The New Hollywood Historical Film Tom Symmons, 2016-06-13 The New Hollywood of the late 1960s and 1970s is among the most exciting and influential periods in the history of film This book explores how the new wave of historical films were profoundly shaped by the controversies and concerns of the present

New Hollywood Cinema Geoff King, 2002 What is New Hollywood The art cinema of the Hollywood Renaissance or the corporate controlled blockbuster The introverted world of Travis Bickle or the action heroics of Indiana Jones Buzz Lightyear and Maximus the Gladiator Innovative departures from the classical Hollywood style or superficial glitz special effects and borrowings from MTV Wholesale change or important continuities with Hollywood's past The answer suggested by Geoff King in New Hollywood Cinema is all of these and more He examines New Hollywood from three main perspectives film style industry and the social historical context Each is considered in its own right sometimes resulting in different ways of defining New Hollywood But one of the book's central arguments is that a combination of these approaches is needed if we are to understand the latest incarnations of the cinema that continues to dominate the global market King looks at the Hollywood Renaissance from the late 1960s to the late 1970s industrial factors shaping the construction of the corporate blockbuster the role of auteur directors genre and stardom in New Hollywood narrative and spectacle in the contemporary blockbuster and the relationship between production for the big and small screens Case studies considered include Taxi Driver Godzilla and Gladiator tracing the roots of New Hollywood from the 1950s to the start of the twenty first century

Hollywood by Hollywood Steven Cohan, 2019 The backstudio picture or the movie about movie making is a staple of Hollywood film production harking back to the silent era and extending to the present day What gives backstudios their coherence as a distinctive genre Steven Cohan argues in Hollywood by Hollywood is their fascination with the mystique of Hollywood as a geographic place a self contained industry and a fantasy of fame leisure sexual freedom and modernity Yet by the same token if backstudio pictures have rarely achieved blockbuster box office success what accounts for the film industry's interest in continuing to produce them The backstudio picture has been an enduring genre because aside from offering a director or writer a chance to settle old scores in branding filmmaking with the Hollywood mystique the genre solicits consumers strong investment in the movies Whether inspiring the movie crazy fan girls of the early teens and twenties or the wannabe filmmakers of this century heading to the West Coast after their college graduations backstudios have given emotional weight and cultural heft to filmmaking as the quintessential American success story But more than that a backstudio picture is concerned with shaping perceptions of how the film industry works with masking how its product depends upon an industrial labor force including stardom and with determining how that work's value accrues from the Hollywood brand stamped onto the product Cohan supports his well theorized and well researched claims with nuanced discussions of over fifty backstudios some canonical and well known and others obscure and rarely seen Covering the hundred year timespan of feature length film production Hollywood by
