The Practice Of Prophetic Imagination Preaching An Emancipating Word:

The Practice of Prophetic Imagination Walter Brueggemann, 2012-06-01 Walter Brueggemann declares that the necessary character of truly prophetic preaching today is a contestation between narratives. If the dominant narrative of our time promotes national self sufficiency through militarism and personal self sufficiency through consumerism it must be opposed by a different narrative. Prophetic preaching takes its stand in a world claimed by a God who is gracious uncompromising and real. Brueggemann writes here for leaders in faith communities who bear the responsibility of preaching. He describes the discipline of a prophetic imagination in an unflinchingly realistic unwaveringly candid manner. Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn. But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method. Homiletical Theology in Action The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch. By placing theological questions at the center of the process the authors some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics try to show how their work as preachers and homileticians is a thoroughgoing theological activity. By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homileticians engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask. Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis.

Rock is a culture and an ideology which carries its own ethos It is forcefully countercultural and exists as a bane in the sight of dominant Western culture As rock engages and critiques culture it invariably encounters issues of meaning that are existential and theological A transformational theology of rock begins with those existential and theological issues raised by and within rock music With God On Our Side attempts to respond to these queries in a way that is faithful to the work of the kingdom of God on earth by mining our long theological tradition and seeing what cohesive responses can be made to the issues raised by rock music At its best rock acknowledges there is something wrong with the world raises awareness of marginalized voices and offers an alternative mode of existence within our present reality By teasing out the theological issues found in rock music this book synthesizes the findings to create a distinctive cultural theology that is sensitive to the plight of the marginalized in the West In this way the book offers a way forward towards a transformational theology of rock and roll The Living Pulpit Mary Alice Mulligan, 2018-04-10

Fifty years of preaching excellence in one volume The Living Pulpit collects sermons from representative preachers in the Stone Campbell Movement pastors affiliated with the Churches of Christ the Christian Churches Churches of Christ and the Christian Church Disciples of Christ over the past 50 years The fourth volume in a series that began in 1868 this collection of sermons from 40 ministers reviewed by a diverse team of scholars captures the theological themes and changing approaches to preaching across the Movement s three streams Emerging from an era of mutual suspicion the three streams have developed a better understanding shared mutuality and respect for each stream s unique qualities and cooperated in many venues qualities reflected in this collection The Living Pulpit 2018 helps preachers and scholars recognize where preaching has been and why it has been there in each stream and where preaching appears to be going in a new mission field for Christianity and the Unity Movement General Editor Mary Alice Mulligan Contributing Editors Ronald Allen Dave Bland David Fleer Joseph Grana II Tim Sensing Bruce Shields Casey Sigmon Richard Voelz Contributors Jimmy Allen Lynn Anderson Gene Appel Dean Barham Batsell Barrett Baxter Russell Blowers Laura Buffington Delores Carpenter Janet Casey Allen Mike Cope Fred Craddock Lisa Davison Glenn Elliott Mark Frost Joseph Grana II Andrew Hairston Cynthia Hale Allen Harris Jodi Hickerson Cal Jernigan Sandhya Jha David Kagiwada Michael Kinnamon Roy Lawson Marshall Leggett Jim McGuiggan Bob Mink Jos Morales Ronald Osborn Derek Penwell Norman Reed Mary Louise Rowand Rob Russell Landon B Saunders Mark Scott Tim Sensing Bob Shannon Rubel Shelly Bruce Shields Casey Sigmon Myron Taylor Samuel Twumasi Ankrah Richard Voelz Paul Watson J S Winston Play, Tongues, and Liberation Power Shelby T. The recent Pixar animated movie Soul illustrates what happens when we are caught up into something The movie uses the common language of being in the Zone Another word for this is being in the state of play Spiritual gifts like speaking in tongues are about normalizing a regular way to enter the zone or play of the Holy Spirit in a way that then empowers us for the rest of non play life Pentecostalism has exploded around the world in part because people have direct encounters in play that empower them to act in new ways This short work explores the nature of play and what happens in the Zone New World, New Church? Hannah Steele, 2017-11-30 The emerging church movement has quickly become one of the fastest growing ecclesiological phenomena in the west today But there is still a debate to be had about how the church understands its identity and purpose within postmodern culture Offering an assessment of the impact of the emerging church upon the church in the West and examining the thinking of the movement's leading proponents including Brian McLaren and Rob Bell New World New Church affirms what is good and insightful in the emerging church and offers a robust critical evaluation of its theological revisions

The Transcendence of Desire Tom James, David True, 2023-11-28 The secular age is not a smooth untroubled process of accumulation and advance but an uneven and unpredictable series of clashes of interest Charles Taylor's immanent frame cannot be construed merely as a phenomenon within religion and culture but urgently needs to be understood in political and economic terms i.e. as a class project The failure of the secular vividly displayed in the crumbling legitimacy of global institutions and in the spectacle of police violence both calls for and makes possible a renewal of political agency Tom James and David True argue that a theology of the cross has a distinctive potential today it can pierce the sacred aura of normalcy around the consensual anti politics of the neoliberal order so that a vision of a world beyond today's racialized capitalism can emerge But they contend that we don't need to forsake the emancipatory aims of modernity nor retreat to local communities As an alternative to these weak strategies they offer a constructive and cruciform account of political agency that includes both prophetic resistance and practical wisdom each embedded in contemporary struggles for freedom that they argue embody divine desire for a common world

Innovation Theology Lanny Vincent, 2017-02-24 Innovation Theology: A Biblical Inquiry and Exploration invites seminary leaders to explore an uncharted territory theology for innovating This unexplored terrain of practical and applied theology holds gems of substantive and practical wisdom for innovating in the marketplace society and church Innovation Theology brings theological perspectives to the challenges of innovating and promises to transform how we make sense of change and where and why we choose to innovate Innovation Theology makes the case that God continues to create and continues to invite us through change to co create new value for others i.e. innovate Innovation Theology explores where discovery invention and value creation intersect or not with the intentions of God Not to be confused with workplace spirituality business ethics or critiques of technology theology for innovating can encourage scientists engineers and entrepreneurs to aim their innovating toward the common good not just in response to the invisible hand of the market Innovation Theology invites us to make meaning before money aim for plumb lines before bottom lines and reattach extrinsic to intrinsic value The one for whom all things are possible is interested invested and engaged in innovating Are we innovating with him or not

A Primer on Innovation Theology Lanny Vincent, 2017-02-24 What does innovation have in common with theology More than you might think Both are ways people attempt to make sense Both have to do with value and knowledge creation Both have much to say about change and how we respond to it or not And both affect human culture and physical realities with implications for generations to come A Primer on Innovation Theology explores the territory where innovating and theology intersect At this intersection the Primer pours a theological foundation for innovators who aim to create new value for the common good realize sustainable more than acquisitive value and pursue generous and just relationships more than merely transactional ones Adapted from the larger original volume Innovation Theology A Biblical Inquiry and Exploration A Primer is intended for lay audiences especially innovators intrapreneurs entrepreneurs and investors who are theologically curious about their own roles and responsibilities Change is unrelenting How we choose to respond can insulate or innovate If we choose to innovate our aim is to create new value for others The success and failure of these aims may reveal whether we are innovating where the plumb lines of God may be more important than the bottom lines of our efforts in other words in the company of God
