Church, State, and the Crisis in American Secularism Bruce Ledewitz, 2011-06-01 Since 1947 the Supreme Court has promised government neutrality toward religion but in a nation whose motto is In God We Trust and which pledges allegiance to One Nation under God the public square is anything but neutral a paradox not lost on a rapidly secularizing America and a point of contention among those who identify all expressions of religion by government as threats to a free society Yeshiva student turned secularist Bruce Ledewitz seeks common ground for believers and nonbelievers regarding the law of church and state He argues that allowing government to promote higher law values through the use of religious imagery would resolve the current impasse in the interpretation of the Establishment Clause It would offer secularism an escape from its current tendency toward relativism in its dismissal of all that religion represents and encourage a deepening of the expression of meaning in the public square without compromising secular conceptions of government The Purpose Driven Life Rick Warren, 2009-03-17 Another Landmark Book by Rick Warren You are not an accident Even before the universe was created God had you in mind and he planned you for his purposes These purposes will extend far beyond the few years you will spend on earth You were made to last forever Self help books often suggest that you try to discover the meaning and purpose of your life by looking within yourself but Rick Warren says that is the wrong place to start You must begin with God your Creator and his reasons for creating you You were made by God and for God and until you understand that life will never make sense This book will help you understand why you are alive and God's amazing plan for you both here and now and for eternity Rick Warren will guide you through a personal 40 day spiritual journey that will transform your answer to life's most important question: What on earth am I here for? Knowing God's purpose for creating you will reduce your stress, focus your energy, simplify your decisions, give meaning to your life, and most importantly, prepare you for eternity. The Purpose Driven Life is a blueprint for Christian living in the 21st century, a lifestyle based on God's eternal purposes, not cultural values. Using over 1,200 scriptural quotes and references, it challenges the conventional definitions of worship, fellowship, discipleship, ministry, and evangelism. In the tradition of Oswald Chambers, Rick Warren offers distilled wisdom on the essence of what life is all about. This is a book of hope and challenge that you will read and re-read, and it will be a classic treasured by generations to come.

A Million Thanks Shauna Fleming, L. A. Stamford, 2005. A story of inspiration and heart. A MILLION THANKS describes fifteen-year-old Shauna Fleming's ambitious goal to collect one million letters of thanks for U.S. troops at home and abroad. Shauna's campaign began in March 2004 as a challenger to her 1100 school mates to better the lives of military families. The book chronicles her extraordinary endeavor and includes more than 100 pages of letters collected by Fleming and A Million Thanks.

Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2016-09-08. Missionaries must know God, be able to relate well to other people, understand and engage with another culture, and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries. Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth. Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field. It also reduces the danger of cross-cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity. This book details four key areas that every missionary training program, whatever its context, must focus on developing. It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross-cultural ministry together.
