The Race Against Time Robert A. Nemiroff, Calvin A. Colarusso, 2013-11-21 This is the second book in the pioneering investigation of adult development by Robert A Nemiroff and Calvin A Colarusso The first Adult Development A New Dimension in Psychodynamic Theory and Practice arrived to critical acclaim in 1981 It presented a psychodynamic theory of development during the second half of life and a model of normal adult functioning This book is the logical sequel expanding and elaborating the original formulations and applying them to the clinical practice of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis Nemiroff and Colarusso demonstrate that these are appropriate techniques for patients in the second half of life regardless of age They lay to rest many stereotypes and myths that have long interfered with the dynamic treatment of older patients and they propose exciting new conceptualizations such as that of adult developmental arrests The genetic approach reaches beyond childhood and adolescence and takes on important new meaning by incorporating an adult developmental past that influences both psychopathology and transference The relationship between theory and therapy is richly demonstrated in the clinical presentations including ten detailed case histories of patients between the ages of 40 and 60. These and other clinical discussions provide ample evidence that a psychodynamic approach that is based on a sound adult developmental psychology can be extraordinarily effective. They also demonstrate both the similarities and differences in working with older versus younger patients. This work is a major contribution in a long neglected dimension of clinical psychiatry. The Race Against Time Edward Pickering, 2013-05-09 When Chris Boardman first raced against Graeme Obree in a time trial in Newtonards Northern Ireland in 1990 it was the start of a rivalry that captivated the British public for a decade and brought cycling on to the front pages. Boardman was the establishment figure reserved scientific middle class. Obree was the rebel the Flying Scotsman working class riding a home made bike. Both were after one thing to be the fastest man on two wheels. After Boardman had won Britain's first cycling gold medal for 72 years at the Barcelona Olympics inspiring none other than Bradley Wiggins to get on a bike attention turned to the world hour record the blue riband event of track cycling. Between 1993 and 1996 the pair took it in turns to smash the record with Boardman's team breaking the boundaries of technology and the loner Obree constantly reinventing ways of building and riding bikes while battling his many demons. The Race Against Time tells the story of how Britain first started to dominate cycling but is also about the struggle between art and science tradition and innovation commercialism and individuality. It is the tale of two complex characters who redefined the sport and set in motion a new era in British cycling the legacy of which we enjoy to this day.

A Race Against Time Carolyn Keene, 2012-04-24 If I'm in the game I play to win. So as captain of my team in the River Heights Biking for Bucks charity road race my goals are to bring my team over the finish line first and to catch a thief along the way. See all of the money we raised before the race has been stolen and I know I can find it. With two days practically no clues and a bike race to win I've got my work cut out for me. But with Bess George and Ned on my team what could stand between us and the gold.

Race Against Time Claire Eckard, 2023-07-17 Flash was a pony that had fallen between the cracks too small for most to ride even for a Hackney pony and too feral to be shown. What he needed was a person as small as he was who had the guts and the patience to give a wild pony a chance. Then along came a little girl with a sensitive soul and a big heart. Kyla Law was just nine years old when she met Flash and neither of them could have anticipated that their partnership would make history. In an inspiring true story of family faith and perseverance Kyla and Flash's relationship mirrors the journey we must all take in life one of highs and lows successes and failures theirs just happens to be along a hundred mile historic trail in the Sierra Nevada mountains the setting for the most famous endurance race in the world. From the moment they met to the moment they crossed the finish line their tenacity exhibits pure spirit the human spirit the Holy Spirit and the fire in the soul kind of spirit that helps us climb mountains and cross rivers literally and figuratively. This story is about a girl and her pony and how in one amazing day they inspired an international community as Flash became the smallest horse to ever finish the Western States One Hundred Mile One Day Ride the Tevis Cup.
