The Portable Hawthorne Penguin Classics:

The Portable Hawthorne Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2005-11-29 The Portable Hawthorne includes writings from each major stage in the career of Nathaniel Hawthorne a number of his most intriguing early tales all of The Scarlet Letter excerpts from his three subsequently published romances The House of Seven Gables The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun as well as passages from his European journals and a sampling of his last unfinished works The editor's introduction and head notes trace the evolution of Hawthorne's writing over the course of his long career from the tales to their apotheosis in The Scarlet Letter through his popular romances to his private journals and frustrated attempts at another romance Readers looking for a critical vantage point from which to see Hawthorne whole his artistic rise triumph and sad decline can find it in this collection The Portable Nathaniel Hawthorne Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1983 Penguin Classics Complete Annotated Catalog Penguin Books, 2003

The Golden Age of the Classics in America Carl J Richard, 2009-07-23 In a masterful study Carl Richard explores how the Greek and Roman classics became enshrined in American antebellum culture For the first time knowledge of the classics extended beyond aristocratic males to the middle class women African Americans and frontier settlers The Civil War led to a radical alteration of the educational system in a way that steadily eroded the preeminence of the classics A Companion to Digital Humanities Susan Schreibman, Ray Siemens, John

Unsworth, 2008-04-15 This Companion offers a thorough concise overview of the emerging field of humanities computing Contains 37 original articles written by leaders in the field Addresses the central concerns shared by those interested in the subject Major sections focus on the experience of particular disciplines in applying computational methods to research problems the basic principles of humanities computing specific applications and methods and production dissemination and archiving Accompanied by a website featuring supplementary materials standard readings in the field and essays to be included in future editions of the Companion Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm), 2005 Nobody's Home Arnold Weinstein, 1993-03-11 Nobody's Home is a bold view of the American novel from its beginnings to the contemporary scene Focusing on some of the deepest instincts of American life and culture individual liberty freedom of speech constructing a life Arnold Weinstein brilliantly sketches the remarkable career of the American self in some of the major works of the past one hundred fifty years Weinstein contends that American writers are haunted by the twin specters of the self as a mirage as Nobody and by the brutal forces of culture and ideology that deny selfhood to people on the basis of money sex and color of skin His central thesis is that language makes possible freedoms and accomplishments that are achievable in no other realm and that American fiction is a fascinating record of the human fight against coercion of the kinds of maneuvering room that we may find in life and in art This study is unique in several respects it offers some of the keenest readings of major American texts that have ever been written including some of the most significant works of the past decades and it fashions a rich and supple view of the American novel as a writerly form of freedom in sharp contrast to today's critical emphasis on blindness and co option Artificial Humanities Nina Beguš,2025-11-25 Artificial Humanities explores how literature history and art can deepen our understanding of artificial intelligence and its development By examining fictional representations of AI in parallel with actual technological developments Nina Begu presents a novel interdisciplinary framework for understanding the cultural philosophical and ethical dimensions of AI She traces connections from Eliza Doolittle to ELIZA the chatbot and current language models incorporates Slavic fictional examples from the Pygmalion paradigm and compares mid century science fiction and recent Hollywood films with contemporary developments in social robotics and virtual beings Highlighting the impact of human like AI design from gendered virtual assistants to romanticized social robots the book shows how these technologies intersect with longstanding humanistic questions about the concepts of creativity and language as well as the relations between humans and machines Additionally the book explores AI s applications in medical fields particularly psychiatry and neurotechnology including how AI interacts with the human body and mind to address conditions like paralysis By emphasizing the philosophical and cultural implications of these technologies Begu highlights the need for responsible innovation that prioritizes human well being as well as machine potential outside of human imitation Accessible and thought provoking Artificial Humanities offers tools for analyzing and assessing technologies while they are being developed and invites readers to see how the humanities can guide us toward a more thoughtful future for AI The Death of Luigi Trastulli and Other Stories Alessandro Portelli,2010-03-30 Portelli offers a new and challenging approach to oral history with an interdisciplinary and multicultural perspective Examining cultural conflict and communication between social groups and classes in industrial societies he identifies the way individuals strive to create memories in order to make sense of their lives and evaluates the impact of the fieldwork experience on the consciousness of the researcher By recovering the value of the story telling experience Portelli s work makes delightful reading for the specialist and non specialist alike From Madman to Crime Fighter Roslynn D. Haynes,2017-08-31 A study of the scientist in Western culture from medieval images of alchemists to present day depictions of cyberpunks and genetic engineers They were mad of course Or evil Or godless amoral arrogant impersonal and inhuman At best they were well intentioned but blind to the dangers of forces they barely controlled They were Faust Frankenstein Jekyll Moreau Caligari Strangelove the scientists of film and fiction cultural archetypes that reflected ancient fears of tampering with the unknown or unleashing the little understood powers of nature In From Madman to Crime Fighter Roslynn D Haynes analyzes stereotypical characters including the mad scientist the cold blooded pursuer of knowledge the intrepid pathbreaker and the bumbling fool that from medieval times to the present day have been used to depict the scientist in Western literature and film She also describes more realistically drawn scientists characters who are conscious of their public responsibility to expose dangers from pollution and climate change yet fearful of being accused of lacking evidence Drawing on examples from Britain America Germany France Russia and elsewhere Haynes explores the persistent folklore of mad doctors of science and its relation to popular fears of a depersonalized male dominated and socially irresponsible pursuit of knowledge for its own sake She concludes that today's public response to science and scientists much of it negative is best understood by recognizing the importance of such cultural archetypes and their significance as myth From Madman to Crime Fighter is the most comprehensive study of the image of the scientist in Western literature and film
