Social TV Cory Barker, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 SCMS Media Industries Scholarly Interest Group Outstanding Book Award sponsored by the Center for Entertainment Media Industries On March 15 2011 Donald Trump changed television forever The Comedy Central Roast of Trump was the first major live broadcast to place a hashtag in the corner of the screen to encourage real time reactions on Twitter generating more than 25 000 tweets and making the broadcast the most watched Roast in Comedy Central history The trumproast initiative personified the media and tech industries utopian vision for a multi screen and communal live TV experience In Social TV Multi Screen Content and Ephemeral Culture author Cory Barker reveals how the US television industry promised but failed to deliver a social media revolution in the 2010s to combat the imminent threat of on demand streaming video Barker examines the rise and fall of Social TV across press coverage corporate documents and an array of digital ephemera He demonstrates that despite the talk of disruption the movement merely aimed to exploit social media to reinforce the value of live TV in the modern attention economy Case studies from broadcast networks to tech start ups uncover a persistent focus on community that aimed to monetize consumer behavior in a transitional industry period To trace these unfulfilled promises and flopped ideas Barker draws upon a unique mix of personal Social TV experiences and curated archives of material that were intentionally marginalized amid pivots to the next big thing Yet in placing this now forgotten material in recent historical context Social TV shows how the era altered how the industry pursues audiences Multi screen campaigns have shifted away from a focus on live TV and toward all day content streams The legacy of Social TV then is the further embedding of media and promotional material onto every screen and into every moment of life

Gone Viral Justin Hart, 2022-10-18 Data and marketing consultant and statistical sage to presidential candidates governors businesses and the real powers that be epidemiologists Justin Hart catalogs in a terrifying but sprightly manner the folly and psychosis produced by the pandemic and diagnoses the societal destruction that the massive overresponse to the COVID virus has wreaked as well as what can be done to stop the madness and bring the world back to a modicum of rationality WORST DISEASE EVER Someone broke America In this nightmare neighbors have turned into agoraphobes teachers fear their students children are muzzled citizens are censored dystopian fictions have become reality and unelected officials are creating a biometric police state Oh wait It's not a nightmare It's our daily lives In truth much of this insanity didn't start with the coronavirus pandemic it was already latent in big government and big corporations and it won't end there COVID 19's greatest threat turned out to be mental All we had to fear was fear itself and boy did some of us fear The very idea of the virus weakened the immune system of America and revealed a decaying underbelly of confusion panic unease and cowardice few of the strong ones suspected existed What a horrible wake up call In a spate of anxious dread and gleeful power grabbing our health overlords threw away the pandemic response handbook and tried beyond all reason to protect well everyone From massive over testing to universal retail plexiglass to stay at home orders to stay away from school orders to masking mandates to vaccine mandates to some of the worst restrictions on civil liberties in American history this is an epic story that poses big questions about America s future as a free society And the odd thing is as Justin Hart shows the actual disease was as pandemics go not that threatening most people were at minimal risk What is really scary is the total overreaction of half the country many governments that lost all sense of perspective Hart offers a hopeful prescription on how we might face the madness down and claw our way back to sanity
