The New Religious Intolerance The New Religious Intolerance:

The New Religious Intolerance Martha C. Nussbaum, 2012-04-24 Drawing inspiration from philosophy history and literature Martha C Nussbaum takes us to task for our religious intolerance identifies the fear behind it and offers a way past fear toward a more equitable imaginative and free society through the consistent application of universal principles of respect for conscience

The New Religious Intolerance Martha C. Nussbaum, 2012-04-24 What impulse prompted some newspapers to attribute the murder of 77 Norwegians to Islamic extremists until it became evident that a right wing Norwegian terrorist was the perpetrator Why did Switzerland a country of four minarets vote to ban those structures How did a proposed Muslim cultural center in lower Manhattan ignite a fevered political debate across the United States In The New Religious Intolerance Martha C Nussbaum surveys such developments and identifies the fear behind these reactions Drawing inspiration from philosophy history and literature she suggests a route past this limiting response and toward a more equitable imaginative and free society Fear Nussbaum writes is more narcissistic than other emotions Legitimate anxieties become distorted and displaced driving laws and policies biased against those different from us Overcoming intolerance requires consistent application of universal principles of respect for conscience Just as important it requires greater understanding Nussbaum challenges us to embrace freedom of religious observance for all extending to others what we demand for ourselves She encourages us to expand our capacity for empathetic imagination by cultivating our curiosity seeking friendship across religious lines and establishing a consistent ethic of decency and civility With this greater understanding and respect Nussbaum argues we can rise above the politics of fear and toward a more open and inclusive future

The Philosopher's Playground Jacob L. Goodson, 2021-11-09 Since its inception in 1994 scriptural reasoning has been practiced by academics and religious laypeople on an international scale Scriptural reasoning is an activity or practice where Jews Christians and Muslims read and study together short passages from their traditionally sacred texts In this book Jacob L Goodson describes this activity by giving a tour through modern philosophy and showing how certain arguments ideas and theories from modern philosophers help make sense of this inter religious practice According to Goodson one of the most interesting aspects of the practice of scriptural reasoning concerns how its driven by a tension between pragmatism and semiotics what he calls purposefulness pragmatism vs playfulness semiotics throughout the book Can inter religious practices only be playful in terms of an academic leisure activity Or do inter religious practices need to strive toward a greater end or even a higher purpose such as peace making among the Abrahamic faiths or inter religious friendships In each individual chapter Goodson explores this tension within the practice of scriptural reasoning Utilizing Immanuel Kant's deontology Goodson concludes by demonstrating how the practice of scriptural reasoning might work if only two rules are in place while participating in it

Which Religion, What Ideology? Janez Juhant, Bojan Zalec, 2016 The book deals with the relationship of religion ideology violence and peace The authors discuss these topics and related phenomena such as religious in tolerance religious pluralism political terror and post secular culture from different aspects education marriage culture of memory business ethics in different concrete societal contexts including Slovenia Slovakia Hungary Poland Taiwan and more Against this background of different academic disciplines philosophy theology science of religion sociology intellectual history psychology science of education and legal science this book offers an integral and inter disciplinary insight into the nature origins function and connections of religion ideology violence and peace Series Theology East West Theologie Ost West Vol 19 Subject Religious Studies Sociology Peace Studies Civil and Political Rights, Including Religious Intolerance United Nations.
