Starting From Zero Reconstructing Downtown New York:

Starting from Zero Michael Sorkin, 2003 Table of contents

Architect and social critic Michael Sorkin develops his own vision of the future lower Manhattan through a series of chronologically organized essays illustrated with full color images of his own plans Mixing his inimitable brand of social criticism with more personal reflections Starting From Zero offers a striving challenge to the Ground Zero redevelopment plan recently chosen by New York's establishment insiders

Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass, 2013-03-22 For the city's first two hundred years the story told at Washington DC's symbolic center the National Mall was about triumphant American leaders Since 1982 when the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated the narrative has shifted to emphasize the memory of American wars In the last thirty years five significant war memorials have been built on or very nearly on the Mall The Vietnam Veterans Memorial the Korean War Veterans Memorial the Women in Military Service for America Memorial The National Japanese American Memorial to Patriotism During WWII and the National World War II Memorial have not only transformed the physical space of the Mall but have also dramatically rewritten ideas about U.S. nationalism expressed there In Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass examines this war memorial boom the debates about war and race and gender and patriotism that shaped the memorials and the new narratives about the nature of American citizenship that they spawned Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall explores the meanings we have made in exchange for the lives of our soldiers and asks if we have made good on our enormous responsibility to them

Paradigm Islands: Manhattan and Venice Teresa Stoppani, 2012-12-06 Concerning architecture and the city built imagined and narrated this book focuses on Manhattan and Venice but considers architecture as an intellectual and spatial process rather than a product A critical look at the making of Manhattan and Venice provides a background to addressing the dynamic redefinition and making of space today The gradual processes of adjustment the making of a constantly changing dense space the emphasis on forming rather than on figure the incorporation of new forms and languages through their adaptation and transformation make both Manhattan and Venice in different ways the ideal places to contextualize and address the issue of an architecture of the dynamic

What Is an Event? Robin Wagner-Pacifici, 2017-03-24 We live in a world of breaking news where at almost any moment our everyday routine can be interrupted by a faraway event Events are central to the way that individuals and societies experience life Even life's inevitable moments birth death love and war are almost always a surprise Inspired by the cataclysmic events of September 11 Robin Wagner Pacifici presents here a tour de force analysis of how events erupt and take off from the ground of ongoing everyday life and how they then move across time and landscape What Is an Event ranges across several disciplines systematically analyzing the ways that events emerge take shape gain momentum flow and even get bogged down As an exploration of how events are constructed out of ruptures it provides a mechanism for understanding eventful forms and flows from the micro level of individual life events to the macro level of historical revolutions contemporary terrorist attacks and financial crises Wagner Pacifici takes a close look at a number of cases both real and imagined through the reports personal narratives paintings iconic images political posters sculptures and novels they generate and through which they live on What is ultimately at stake for individuals and societies in events Wagner Pacifici argues are identities loyalties social relationships and our very experiences of time and space What Is an Event provides a way for us all as social and political beings living through events and as analysts reflecting upon them to better understand what is at stake in the formations and flows of the events that mark and shape our lives

Interdisciplinary Handbook of Trauma and Culture Yochai Ataria, David Gurevitz, Haviva Pedaya, Yuval Neria, 2016-09-15 This lofty volume analyzes a circular cultural relationship not only how trauma is reflected in cultural processes and products but also how trauma itself acts as a critical shaper of literature the visual and performing arts architecture and religion and mythmaking The political power of trauma is seen through US Israeli and Japanese art forms as they reflect varied roles of perpetrator victim and witness Traumatic complexities are traced from spirituality to movement philosophy to trauma theory And essays on authors such as Kafka Plath and Cormac McCarthy examine how narrative can blur the boundaries of personal and collective experience Among the topics covered Television a traumatic culture From Hiroshima to Fukushima comics and animation as subversive agents of memory in Japan The death of the witness in the era of testimony Primo Levi and Georges Perec Sigmund Freud's Moses and Monotheism and the possibility of writing a traumatic history of religion Placing collective trauma within its social context the case of the 9 11 attacks Killing the killer rampage and gun rights as a syndrome This volume appeals to multiple readerships including researchers and clinicians sociologists anthropologists historians and media researchers

Competence Roberta R. Greene, Nancy Kropf, 2017-07-28 The actions social workers take are aimed at helping people communities and societies attain a sense of mastery become or remain competent and achieve or retain a sense of well being Such a broad scope of practice necessitates a theoretical foundation that is anchored in the concept of human competence This text explores the concept of competence and shows how it is expressed in a variety of theoretical frameworks including traditional models and emerging theoretical approaches This approach toward human behavior focuses on mutually beneficial interactions between people and society and emphasizes the connections between individuals and various systems that influence their lives It enables the social worker to conduct multilevel client assessments gaining an understanding of how clients function within their total environment and plan a range of helpful interventions The volume is organized around the competency based approach to social work education adopted by the Council on Social Work Education Written by leading analysts in the field Competence is essential reading for the field of social work

Designing Memory Sabina Tanović, 2019-11-28 This innovative study of memorial architecture investigates how design can translate memories of human loss into tangible structures creating spaces for remembering Using approaches from history psychology anthropology and sociology Sabina Tanovi explores purposes behind creating contemporary memorials in a given location their translation into architectural concepts their materialisation in the face of social and political challenges and their influence on the transmission of memory Covering the period from the First World War to the present she looks at memorials such as the Holocaust museums in Mechelen and Drancy as well as memorials for the victims of terrorist attacks to unravel the private and public role of memorial architecture and the possibilities of architecture as a form of agency in remembering and dealing with a difficult past The result is a distinctive contribution to the literature on history and memory and on architecture as a link to the past

Cities, War, and Terrorism Stephen Graham, 2008-04-15 Cities War and Terrorism is the first book to look critically at the ways in which warfare terrorism and counter terrorism policies intersect in cities in the post Cold War period A path breaking exploration of the intersections of war terrorism and cities Argues that contemporary cities are the key strategic sites of geopolitical conflict Written by the world's leading analysts of the intersections of urban space and military and terrorist violence Draws on cutting edge research from geography history architecture planning sociology critical theory politics international relations and military studies Provides up to date empirical analyses of specific conflicts including 9 11 the War on Terrorism the Balkan wars the Israeli Palestinian conflict and urban antiglobalization battles Offers lay readers a sophisticated perspective on the violence that is engulfing our increasingly urbanised world Residue Michael J.
