

Out of Egypt: Manna from Heaven By JAB

Characters: Moses,

Aaron,

Mos 1

Mos 2

Props: bread or crackers, cups, water, walking stick

Narrator: The people of Israel were now free from their Egyptian taskmasters. They praised God, for he had saved them by parting the sea. The journey to the Promised Land had begun.

Mos 1: We are very thirsty Moses. We have traveled for three days without water.

Moses: Soon we will find water.

Mos 2: What we find is unfit to drink. It is too bitter.

Moses: God knows that you need water. That is why there is a tree around the next rock. I am to cut it down and toss into the water. The water will then be good to drink.

Mos 1: (drinking the water) You were right. It is sweet and fresh. It is fit to drink.

Moses: God will bring you to the Promised Land, but you must trust Him and do what He says. Do not be afraid. He has promised to look after us. When you need more water He will see that we find it.

Mos 2: Look ahead. There, I see what we need. Count them. There are twelve fresh water springs and seventy palm trees to make shade for us.

Moses: Here we will camp.

Mos 1: What about food? We are all going to die without food. Why did we not stay in Egypt? We will starve to death here in the desert.

Aaron: You are complaining against the Lord your God. Moses told you to trust in Him. God will send you meat this evening and bread tomorrow.

Moses: The Lord will send us food like rain from the sky. Each day we must go out and gather what is needed for that day.

Aaron: Will you do as the Lord teaches you to do?

Mos 1: He will send us food? Like rain from the sky? This seems like a crazy idea. Am you both so hungry and thirsty that you are talking crazy?

Moses: Tomorrow morning you will see the food that The Lord has provided, even though you grumble and complain.

Narrator: So now pretend you are the people traveling with Moses. Do as he did that night, lay down to sleep. Close your eyes and think about what the Lord has promised you. Imagine that you had not eaten breakfast this morning. Imagine that you didn't have dinner last night. Now keep your eyes closed and think about how hungry you would be. Do you believe that the Lord will provide you with food? Keep your eyes closed, sleep well until Aaron tells you it is morning. (Bread spreads around the room)
