Skyscraper Secrets Muriel Sarahs Summer:

Skyscraper Secrets Jen Dozier, 2015-11-29 Two attractive every day and very anonymous women in the terrifying 1950s in an unidentified U S city discovered a wonderful thing together freedom Crack that nut and savor its insides and you find passion beauty affection friendship love and yes hot steamy sex We re human It comes with the territory Follow your instincts and see where they lead you This is such a story Only the names have been changed to protect the innocent Muriel and Sarah s beautiful summer was brief never to return but it left a wonderful place in their hearts that was as enduring as it would remain secret This is not a story about labels bi les whatever but about two human beings who discovered something very special together in an age when they virtually risked their lives for such passion Theirs remains even today a fulfilling relationship often once in a lifetime many continue to discover and just as secretively Today over a hundred million women have eagerly purchased a trilogy Fifty Shades of Grey involving sado masochistic sex Surely though Skyscraper Secrets is as erotic and explicit as it is warm and loving a simple love affair between two human beings cannot elicit the same horror it did half a century ago or could it We each must judge for ourselves honestly and fairly For Muriel and Sarah it is just that one time in that special place never to be forgotten before they move on with what society considers a vanilla life style without exotic flavorings of any kind But the taste of that special truth and that freedom lingers in their memory like the tang of a summer blossom You could say it is a rare flower that blooms only once in its life and soon withers away into memory gone but not forgotten We were going to provide some background information about the 1950s English speaking world to explain the author s claims that it was a horrific era but the information we gathered was so horrific that we decided not to include it in what is essentially intended as an entertainment Take our word for it the 1950s were in too many ways like one big long newsreel out of Kafka or Orwell We ll never learn the real names of our Sarah and our Muriel nor the city in which they experienced a summer of wonder As you will quickly learn while reading Sarah s secret journal written years later largely from her long ago memories she and the somewhat older Muriel were two independent and unique spirits whose self direction ran counter to the regimentation imposed by their world If you never lived a summer like that of Muriel and Sarah long ago in the 1950s but you are secretly curious you will understand deep in your heart how they found refuge together and love discovered them in a cozy nook of light and warmth in a cold gray U S city a city essentially part of a society that was caught up in a vast Cold War within its heart Muriel and Sarah were swimmers on a fathomless sea sailing by the stars without a guide book or a compass Such a total physical heart and soul crush may happen once in a woman s life never to be repeated Those who have been so lucky will carry their secret forever hidden silently deeply in their heart borne with a mysterious smile and slight goddess glow They go their separate ways marry have children live in leafy suburbs far apart but neither will ever forget the other Their brief summer leaves its mark like a long warm afternoon an endless sunset glowing around paired swimmers on a fathomless sea alone and together at the same time They will forever treasure its light and you will be glad Sarah wrote this erotic loving memoir many years later She captures a perfect time moment by sensuous and delicious moment explicit and breathless like a favorite love song on a radio playing over and over again to its fiery but cool sunset fade

Skyscraper Secrets Jennifer Dozier, 2012-04-01 There was a woman not too much older and nice looking who liked to pay me a little extra to come over on my lunch break and spend time with her So begins Skyscraper Secrets the sentimental horny and very explicit summer love story of Muriel and Sarah It's a coming of age novel during the terrifying 1950s Sarah is a stunning sassy gum chewing secretary aged 23 who works in the Century Building and takes steno lessons at night when she's not having wild car sex with her boyfriend Ronny Muriel 37 is a pretty widowed mother of three the city's first woman lawyer a Harvard graduate and far between serious men She does have her eye on the older Adonis who delivers packages among the sky scraper office buildings She had never even thought of women or girls romantically until one day she crossed the street to deliver a case file and saw the stunning Sarah She knew immediately she must have her or die and proceeded to seduce Sarah It was forbidden fruit during the stark 1950s but Muriel managed to flirt with Sarah who didn't even know it at first the way a man flirted with a woman The story is told from Sarah's notes and memories a truly erotic memoir and a love story They shared a secret garden that only they knew about every noon on Sarah's lunch hour and in Muriel's ratty little one window office on the 20th floor of the Finncroft Tower down the street
