Twelve Days at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, MSKCC Joseph Lanciotti, 1998

A Flatlanders View Joseph Miller, 2024-11-05 In this debut collection Joseph Miller pays tribute to his life Buzzing with gritty inner city Canadiana crackling with wit thrumming with deep love and intimacy these poems acknowledge sorrow and celebrate beauty Asparagus grows from a pile of manure Sunlight sneaks through the window of a house where a woman is sick with cancer A sparrow sings despite everything With his home province of Saskatchewan as a rolling backdrop Miller takes readers on a journey through personal struggles such as his wife's illness and his work as executive director of a Christian rescue mission and through some of society's historical and even recent challenges such as COVID 19 Unescapably honest and reassuringly wise A Flatlanders View offers hope in the strangest darkest moments of humanity

The Poetry of Life Alfred M. Prince, 2010-03-17 This memoir details the ups and downs of a life in science as well as the pleasures of life in Europe Japan and Africa Alfred Prince describes the importance of his many friends in contributing to his education successes in research and pleasure in life He also describes the enemies who made life difficult A major portion of the book concentrates on the nature of chimpanzees which have played such an important role in Dr Prince's research. The relationship between these near human animals and man is extensively explored. Finally Prince speculates on the creation of a chimp human hybrid MANZEE in the hope that this offspring could cast further light on the relationship between these two closely related animals. The Stone Man and the Poet Barbara Block Adams, 2011-01-12 Barbara Adams has created a memoir that is heartfelt and heartbreaking peeling away the layers of a relationship that lead us to moments of stark insight and genuine humor. It's not often that a writer can deliver a personal story with this kind of simplicity and depth. A reader will leave The Stoneman and the Poet with a stronger understanding of what it's like to endure both as an artist and a woman. Laurence Carr, Editor of Riverine And WaterWrites. Author of Pancake Hollow Primer. The Stone Man the Poet is a deeply moving memoir of a complicated marriage between a husband who is half gentle half mad and a wife who struggles to keep her large family intact while forging her own identity as a writer. Written in a lyrical prose style and filled with wry humor, The Stone Man the Poet abounds in insights and empathy. Jeffrey Berman, Ph.D., Author of The Talking Cure and Empathic Teaching. This is a powerful story told with utter honesty, realistic detail and enduring love. It recalls a dramatic period of social changes against a background of New England, New York City and upstate New York, Cape Cod and Ireland, yet it remains a highly personal memoir that deserves a wide and attentive audience. James Finn Cotter, Ph.D., Author of Inscape and Translator of Dante's The Divine Comedy. Barbara Block Adams uses the diary form to convey her own feelings and emotions quietly and convincingly in a gripping contrast to the sad experience of her husband's cancer. Her detailed descriptions of his suffering are balanced by the general information she provides about the disease and its treatment. The resulting book is both moving and useful. Deirdre Bair, Biographer of Beckett, National Book Award. Anas Nin and Jung. Midrash & Medicine William Cutter, 2011. This volume examines the spiritual shortfalls of our current healing environment and explores how midrash can help you see beyond the physical aspects of healing to tune in to your spiritual source. The Fall of a Sparrow Dina Porat, 2009-10-21. The Fall of a Sparrow is the only full biography in English of the partisan poet and patriot Abba Kovner, 1918-1987. An unsung and largely unknown hero of the Second World War and Israel's War of Independence, Kovner was born in Vilna, the Jerusalem of Lithuania. Long before the rest of the world suspected he was the first person to state that Hitler was planning to kill the Jews of Europe, Kovner and other defenders of the Vilna ghetto only hours before its destruction escaped to the forest to join the partisans fighting the Nazis. Returning after the Liberation to find Vilna empty of Jews, he immigrated to Israel where he devised a fruitless plot to take revenge on the Germans. He then joined the Israeli army and served as the Givati Brigade's Information Officer, writing Battle Notes newsletters that inspired the troops defending Tel Aviv. After the war, Kovner settled on a kibbutz and dedicated his life to working the land, writing poetry and raising a family. He was also the moving force behind such projects as the Diaspora Museum and the Institute for the Translation of Hebrew Literature. The Fall of a Sparrow is based on countless interviews with people who knew Kovner and letters and archival material that have never been translated before Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber's Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of their conversations on Covid 19 Read an interview with Thornber on Brill's Humanities Matter blog
