Phonics Practice Media Sensation:

Making Sense of Mass Education Gordon Tait, 2013 Making Sense of Mass Education provides a comprehensive analysis of the field of mass education The book presents new assessment of traditional issues associated with education class race gender discrimination and equity to dispel myths and assumptions about the classroom It examines the complex relationship between the media popular culture and schooling and places the expectations surrounding the modern teacher within ethical legal and historical contexts The book blurs some of the disciplinary boundaries within the field of education drawing upon sociology cultural studies history philosophy ethics and jurisprudence to provide stronger analyses The book reframes the sociology of education as a complex mosaic of cultural practices forces and innovations Engaging and contemporary it is an invaluable resource for teacher education students and anyone interested in a better understanding of mass education

Making Sense Bill Cope, Mary Kalantzis, 2020-01-30 Explains the multimodal connections of text image space body sound and speech in both old and new computer mediated communication systems

Sense-making: Problematizing Constructs of Literacy for 21st Century Education Marilyn J. Narey, Kelli Jo Kerry-Moran, 2021-03-15 This book is a rich yet highly accessible volume that details an exciting and much needed inquiry into the notion of literacy what it is why it is and how it might be framed most effectively for 21st century education The chapters unfold in a creative interplay of practice and theory Narey's insightful questioning into the socio historical cultural implications of literacy as empowerment establishes the critical context while Kerry Moran's examination of the burgeoning literacy landscape reveals challenges for teacher education Drawing upon classic and cutting edge theories Narey builds a provocative and powerful case for a 21st century construct of literacy as sense making sense as relative to the senses i e sight hearing and sense as making meaning Her innovative model of the literacy event opens up a range of potential foci for analysis and facilitates her teasing out of two critical areas for instruction sensory perception and aesthetic knowledge This theoretical sense making lens is applied to Kerry Moran's teacher education classroom as the authors reflect upon further development As a timely original and thought provoking work this slim volume of big ideas promises to be a valuable resource for teacher educators and other scholars who seek a clear and cohesive frame for literacy in 21st century education This is a very well written scholarly text that provides a new and important theory of 21st century literacy Narey's sketches of literacy as sense making are laid out in logical form building upon researched and referenced sources to ground her ideas and offering the reader information examples and new insights In addition to providing many significant perspectives underpinning her new theory Narey provides excellent historical and current explanations about literacy from highly respected researchers in the field The inclusion of a practical application of Narey's conceptual theoretical framework to Kerry Moran's example of an instructional unit in a teacher education course is helpful to understanding the theory in practice The references throughout the work are extensive comprehensive and very well documented This text Sense making Problematizing Constructs of Literacy for 21st

Century Education contributes original thinking to the field of literacy and learning and would be an excellent resource for literacy and language professors or instructors in a post graduate or professional development program Penny Silvers Professor of Education Dominican University USA

English a Changing Medium for Education Constant Leung, Brian V. Street, 2012-07-25 In this volume a range of authors from different international contexts argue that the notion of communicative competence in English hitherto largely referenced to metropolitan native speaker norms has to be expanded to take account of diverse contexts of use for a variety of purposes It also discusses the popular belief that language and literacy should simply be regarded as a technical skill which confers universal benefits and that it should be replaced with a social practice view that recognises situated variations and diversity This volume we believe provides a reference point for extended research and practice in these areas that will be of interest to wide range of people engaged in language and literacy education

Digital Media in Education Michelle Cannon, 2018-06-19 This book argues for dynamic and relevant school experiences for primary and early secondary learners that embed digital media production It proposes a vision of literacy that combines new technologies with multiple modes of meaning making Drawing on theories related to cultural studies media literacy anthropology and creativity the author explores learning strategies with digital media based on an empowering values driven framework The book advances innovative teaching methods critiquing educational reforms that marginalise media and fail to engage with the complex tensions and textures of modern pedagogy Positioning film and media making as vital practices in schools that nurture the skills dispositions and competencies of modern literacy the model foregrounds connections between human agency cognition and creative practice This innovative book will appeal to students and scholars of creativity digital media production primary education and literacy
