Transcending Boundaries Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-10-11
Transcending Boundaries Writing for a Dual Audience of Children and Adults is a collection of essays on twentieth century authors who cross the borders between adult and children s literature and appeal to both audiences This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from eight countries constitutes the first book devoted to the art of crosswriting the child and adult in twentieth century international literature Sandra Beckett explores the multifaceted nature of crossover literature and the diverse ways in which writers cross the borders to address a dual readership of children and adults It considers classics such as Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and Pinocchio with particular emphasis on post World War II literature The essays in Transcending Boundaries clearly suggest that crossover literature is a major widespread trend that appears to be sharply on the rise

Of A Boy Sonya Hartnett, 2011-05-24 The year is 1977 and Adrian is nine He lives with his gran and his uncle Rory his best friend is Clinton Tull He loves to draw and he wants a dog he s afraid of quicksand and self combustion Adrian watches his suburban world but there is much he cannot understand He does not for instance know why three neighbourhood children might set

Voices of the Other Roderick McGillis, 2013-05-13 This book offers a variety of approaches to children s literature from a postcolonial perspective that includes discussions of cultural appropriation race theory pedagogy as a colonialist activity and multiculturalism The eighteen essays divide into three sections Theory Colonialism Postcolonialism The first section sets the theoretical framework for postcolonial studies essays here deal with issues of otherness and cultural difference as well as the colonialist implications of pedagogic practice These essays confront our relationships with the child and childhood as sites for the exertion of our authority and control Section 2 presents discussions of the colonialist mind set in children s and young adult texts from the turn of the century Here works by writers of animal stories in Canada the U S and Britain works of early Australian colonialist literature and Frances Hodgson Burnett s A Little Princess come under the scrutiny of our postmodern reading practices Section 3 deals directly with contemporary texts for children that manifest both a postcolonial and a neo colonial content In this section the longest in the book we have studies of children s literature from Canada Australia Africa the Caribbean and the United States

The Children of the King Sonya Hartnett, 2014-02-06 It s the Second World War and with London becoming an increasingly dangerous place to live the Lockwood children are whisked away to Heron Hall to stay with their Uncle Peregrine in the countryside But when they discover two strange boys hiding in a nearby derelict castle the past and present collide

Young Adult Gothic Fiction Michelle J. Smith, Kristine Moruzi, 2021-06-15 Focus on young adult literature This focus on young adult literature means that this book expands scholarship specifically in this area Focus on the Gothic for young people Gothic texts are very popular in children's and young adult literature but there hasn't been a lot of scholarship on the Gothic for adolescents This book expands our knowledge of how the Gothic intersects with young adult literature Includes coverage of YA fiction from the UK US Canada Australia and New Zealand a range of genres that intersect with the Gothic including historical fiction and fairy tale as well as forms such as the short story and graphic novel

Death, Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature Kathryn James, 2009-02-10 Knowledge about carnality and its limits provides the agenda for much of the fiction written for adolescent readers today yet there exists little critical engagement with the ways in which it has been represented in the young adult novel in either discursive ideological or rhetorical forms Death Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature is a pioneering study that addresses these methodological and contextual gaps Focusing on texts produced since the late 1980s and drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives Kathryn James shows how representations of death in young adult literature are invariably associated with issues of sexuality gender and power Under particular scrutiny are the trope of woman death the eroticizing and sexualizing of death and the ways in which the gendered subject is represented in dialogue with the processes of death dying and grief Through close readings of historical literature fantasy fictions realistic novels dead narrator tales and texts from genres including Gothic horror and post disaster James reveals not only how cultural discourses influence and are influenced by literary works but how relevant the study of death is to adolescent fiction the literature of becoming
